Union Republican Meeting To-Night.

A meeting of the Union Republicans of Allegheny county will be held this evening at the Monongahela House, which will be addressed by Major Russell Errett, our candidate for State Senate, Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., Gen. Collier and others. The arrangements promise a most entertaining meeting, and it is earnestly desired that every voter may find it convenient to be present. The campaign now is short, and every man is expected to do his duty.

OUR STEUBENVILLE LETTER.

Republican Meeting---Base Ball Games---The Arkwright Cotton Mill---New Building---History of the Old.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

STEUBENVILLE, September 9, 1867.

A Union meeting, "large and enthusiastic," was held in the Court House in this city Saturday evening. Hon. Robert Sherrard, Jr., was called to the chair, and after a few pertinent remarks introduced Daniel McCurdy, Esq., who addressed the vast audience, which had assembled, for nearly an hour, taking strong grounds in favor of impartial suffrage, reviewing the grounds upon which the so-called Democracy based their claims.

The base ball match on Saturday between the first nine of "Benicia" club of Benwood, W. Va., and the second nine of the "Mears" club of this city, was witnessed by a large crowd of people, estimated at about one thousand, about one-third of whom were in carriages and buggies.

The "Benicias" won the toss and took the field, the Mears going to the bat, and from the manner in which they started off, I had almost concluded that they were going to keep the others out. I might safely call the batting of the Mears "terrific," for that of Evans, Thompson, McCook, Black, Brown, Burns, Turner, and "Old Saleratus," was never equalled by any club that ever played on this ground. This, however, is the first game that the "Benecias" have ever played with first class players, having never played in any place but Wheeling, consequently they have plenty of room for improvement, both in fielding and catching. Their defeat is attributable more to the swift pitching of Tusine, who, with proper practice, will make one of the surest and swiftest pitchers in this part of the country, excepting Chucker Pratt, of course. The score at the end of the ninth inning stood—Mears second nine, 102; Benicias, 38; time of game, 3 hours, 50 minutes. They took their defeat good naturedly, assuring the boys that they would try and place themselves in proper trim to reduce the score the next time, if they couldn't win.

Messrs. G. E. & J. H. Warner contemplate demolishing that part of the Arkwright Cotton Mill known as the old building. This building was erected in 1838, thirty years ago, by Wm. Grogan, whose name is still visible on the marble slab in front of the building on Water street. It was run for a number of years under his proprietorship, afterwards passing into the hands of Black & Laughlin, who run it for some time. It then passed out of the ownership of Black & Laughlin to that of Hunter & Morton, and was run by them some time, and, I am informed, afterwards passed into the hands of John Hunter, who carried on the business as it was thought very extensively at that time; and from the time it was built up to this time there had been no improvements of any importance made upon either machinery or building. In 1844 it was purchased by Messrs. G. E. & J. H. Warner, who have run it successfully up to the present time. But those who saw the mill thirty years ago would scarcely realize that it was the same. Immediately after taking hold the proprietors found that in order to supply the demand for "Arkwright" goods it would be necessary to enlarge the mill, and in 1848 a new building was erected fronting on High street, about 30 by 60 feet. With all this improvement there was still a lack of room for machinery to supply the increasing demand for their manufactures, and in 1852, another building was erected fronting on Water stret of about the same dimensions. Still there is more room needed, and the proprietors will commence next week or the week following to tear down the old building and erect in its stead a building sixty by eighty feet, which, when completed, will be one of the largest and most complete cotton mills in the United States. The new mill will have about 108 looms, and will run about the same number of spindles, (5 and 6,000(as the old, and will also have "lopper," snbber and roving machines with five foot stroke.

STATE ITEMS.

One of the Kempinsky brothers, recently arrested at Petroleum Centre, for attempting to run away with the intention of defrauding their creditors, is charged with having committed a murder. The similarity in name has no doubt confounded Kempinsky with Skupinsky, the latter the name of two brothers charged with a horrible murder in Philadelphia some years since, and which created a great sensation at the time.

A grand mass meeting of the colored people of Chester and Lancaster counties, will be held in Scarlett's woods, near Christiana, Lancaster county, on Saturday, September 21, to celebrate the emancipation of their race. Eminent speakers from Philadelphia and Baltimore have been invited, and are expected to attend.

Mrs. Pendleton, of Windham, married about one year ago, returned from church on last Sunday week, started a fire, and was in the act of removing a lid from the top of the stove, when the flame burst up, setting fire to her clothes, and burning her flesh to a crisp before her husband, attracted by her screams, reached the room and succeeded in extinguishing the fire. She lived in great agony some twenty-four hours, when death put an end to her sufferings.

The clothing store of Wm. A. Craft, on Market street, Harrisburg, was entered by thieves on Saturday night or Sunday morning, and ready-made clothing and goods to the value of one thousand dollars carried off. The goods were taken in the direction of the canal through the most populous part of the city, and was one of the boldest burglaries ever perpetrated at Harrisburg. It may be mentioned that there are but three policemen on night duty in the city, and it is only to be wondered at that more daring robberies are not perpetrated there.

A middle aged man named J. W. Bailey, who has been for three years in the service of Wm. Sellers & Co., engineers and manufacturers, Philadelphia, as bookkeeper, was detected a few days since in peculating small sums from his employers by means of false entries. An examination of the books of the firm for three years past, shows that several thousand dollars were stolen in the aggregate. Bailey suddenly disappeared, but returning on Friday to his residence he was arrested and held in $6,000 for a hearing.

A decision in the Lancaster county Court, last week, proves that the law of the State, to the effect that all sums of money bet on elections can be made forfeit to the Directors of the Poor in the counties where the wagers are laid, is not obselete. The facts in the Lancaster case are briefly these: During the political canvass of 1864, Evan Mishler, of Reading, and P. F. Hathaway, of Lancaster county, wagered $100 each on what was called the "home vote"—that is, Mishler bet that McClellan would have a majority of the votes cast in the State. It so happened, however, that there were a large number of soldiers home during the election, and the votes of these, it was contended, could not be counted as the home vote. The real home vote therefore it was impossible to ascertain, and the "sporting men" held that all bets of this character were to be considered a "draw." In this case Mr. Hathaway had been allowed the use of the money, pending the election, and afterward refused to consider the bet a draw. Mr. Mishler therefore gave information to the directors of the poor of the existence of the bet, and required them to bring suit, under the act of Assembly, for the recovery of such penalties. The directors acted accordingly, but the case was continued from term to term, and only came to trial last week. The jury found for the plaintiff to the full amount, with interest.

The Society of the One Hundreth Pennsylvania regiment will meet at New Castle, on the 17th, and not on the 16th inst., as erroneously printed a few days since.

The criminal court in Meadville is now in session, and is well supplied with business.

A Tidioute constable is under arrest on a charge of swindling. He borrowed $80 of a friend and afterwards returned him $40 as security for the other half. The lender consented to the transaction, and is now making a fuss about it.

Juniata county will hold its annual Fair at Perrysville, on the 9th, 10th and 11th of October.

The Mifflin County Poor House Farm was sold on Wednesday last, to Alexander Morrison and David Weiler, both of Union township, for $125 20 per acre. The farm embraces 204 acres and 19 perches.

The corner stone of the Methodist Episcopal Church, about to be built in Duncansville, Blair county, will be laid with appropriate ceremonies, on Thursday, September 19th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The materials of the Hollidaysburg Leader, formerly published by John H. Keatley, Esq., are to be removed to Williamsburg, by Dr. J. P. Thompson, and the publication of the Temperance Vindicator commenced.

Seven tons of butter were brought into Corry by the Cross Cut Railroad one day last week, and shipped to New Orleans.

The Amnesty Proclamation.

Southern View of Its Powers.

NO CHANGES IN THE CABINET.

THE IMPEACHMENT QUESTION.

General Howard Returned to Duty.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, September 11, 1867.

Registration and Amnesty.

Even if it were true that the President contemplated it, the Southern papers received here to-day do not expect that the registration lists in the South will be opened as a sequence to the amnesty proclamation. The Charleston News best illustrates the position maintained by most of the leading papers received here, when it says: "Let it not be understood that the pardon of the President entitles a party to register or vote. It remits the penalty, but it does not obliterate the offense, and if it did obliterate the offense, it could not affect the powers assumed by Congress in its reconstruction acts. Those acts declare who can and who cannot vote, without any regard to the Constitution. They have fixed the status of every man independently of the President. That they are unconstitutional we have never doubted, but we are equally as certain that the power gives to those acts all of the force of law."

No Changes in Cabinet.

The Star this evening states the truth when it says that the President has declared within the past two days to several distinguished persons with whom he had an interview, that it was not his intention to make any changes in the Cabinet at present.

Not in Favor of Impeachment.

The Intelligencer indignantly denies that Senator Fessenden has written a letter avowing that he now favors impeachment, which is true so far as is known here. The letter on which the original statement was based came from an intimate friend of the Senator, and represented him as favoring impeachment.

Preparing for Business.

General Butler was at the War Department this morning for some time, and was very busily engaged in examining the various documents and arranging the business for his committee by the time the session begins.

Gen. Sickles's Late Order.

Another effort is about to be made in North Carolina to enforce the process of the United States Court relative to debt, which General Sickles regarded as in violation of order No. 10. It is well understood here that General Canby will make no resistance to the particular case now pending, though he will not repeal the order in question.

The Freedmen's Bureau.

General Howard returned to-day and resumed his duties at the head of the Freedmen's Bureau, where he is likely to remain for the present. General Gordon Granger, whose name has been mentioned so frequently as his successor, left this evening for the West to rejoin his regiment.

Pension Surgeons.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Examining Surgeons, by the Pension office: George W. Morrill, Warsaw, Wis., Wm. S. Parker, Piqua, Ohio; Edwin Ellis, Ontonagon, Mich.; James Lang, Marshaltown, Iowa; James L. Reat, Tuscola, Illinois; A. H. Stephens, Eaton, Ohio; Wm. B. Rich, Knoxville, Tenn.; Orange Pomeroy, Chardon, Ohio.

The Proclamation.

The proclamation made on the 5th, relative to the observance of the Constitution and the laws made in pursuance thereof, was sent to-day to a large number of Government officials, including the clerks in the various departments, in accordance with the executive order of the 5th.

The Attorney General.

Attorney General Stanbery returns to-morrow, and Binckley takes a vacation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 11, 1867.

ADDITIONAL LIST OF PARDONS.

An additional list of persons pardoned in Virginia, Alabama and Georgia is in course of preparation at the Attorney General's office. These number about 10,000, which make an aggregate of upward of 18,000 pardoned to the 7th inst. Questions have arisen as to whether the proclamation excludes from pardon those who had brevet rank higher than the grade of Brigadier General, and also as to whether the terms "agent," in addition to ministers and commissioners, include those sent abroad to sell bonds and cotton. These questions will be decided in the order of presentation.

CABINET RUMORS.

There is no immediate prospect of changes in the Cabinet, although rumors to this effect continue to prevail.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF STATE BONDS.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day issued the following notice: The notice of the 7th of July to holders of bonds of the State of Missouri, which were abstracted in 1860 from the Department of the Interior, is hereby extended so as to embrace the abstracted bonds of the States of North Carolina and Tennessee. The proof in relation to the title of the holders of bonds must be made under oath and not merely epistolary.

THE ARMY.

Col. M. T. Howe, retired, is ordered to Harrodsburg, Ky., to assume the duties heretofore performed by Brigadier General Eastman. Brevet Major General E. A. Carr is ordered to report for duty as commanding General of the Department of Washington.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 11, 1867.

AN IMMENSE BRIDGE.

Mr. Roebling, engineer of the projected bridge over East river, has made a report. He states that the bridge will terminate at Chatham Square, New York, and near Fulton Ferry, Brooklyn. The total length will be 5,862 feet, and the center span will be 160 feet above high water mark. The total cost of the structure is estimated at $6,675,537, and it will permit the transportation of 500,000 persons daily.

REVENUE FRAUD.

Another revenue fraud has been discovered in Brooklyn by which the Government lost about $40,000. Some five hundred barrels, supposed to be filled with liquor, in bonded warehouses in Sedgwick street, had been emptied of their contents. J. C. Thompson, keeper of one of the warehouses, was arrested and held to bail in $20,000.

MASONIC PIC-NIC.

A great Masonic pic-nic took place at Jones's Woods to-day. Representatives were present from all the principal cities of the country. The dancing lasted several hours. Brother David Carswell, of Canada, delivered a lecture on Charity, and Mayor Hoffman presented the bible and jewels to the Eastern Star degree.

THE AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION,

In session here, elected Jno. Milman, of New York, President. His address said the internal revenue was the principal concern of leading men, and he hoped the Association could arrive at such conclusions as would influence Congress to reduce the tax upon foreign drugs for which native herbs could not be substituted.

A PRIZE FIGHT

Near Hackensack river, Jersey, this morning broke up in a general melee, and one of the principals named McCormick, who seemed likely to be the victor, was beaten almost to death.

DOMINION OF CANADA.

Riot at Point Levi--Two Persons Killed and Several Injured.

QUEBEC, September 11.—A serious riot, originating in a house of ill-fame, occurred at Point Levi on Monday night, between the military and civilians. The soldiers attacked two houses, putting the inmates to flight, and destroying the furniture. A number of civilians were badly hurt. A Mr. Thibault, of Point Levi, is not expected to live. Two soldiers are reported killed and another mortally wounded. The officers of the regiment succeeded in restoring order.

MONTREAL, September 11.—Hon. D'Arcy McGee publishes an earnest letter to-day on the moral of election riots, and calls for evidence against and prompt justice to be visited upon the ringleaders. He traces the mob spirit so suddenly developed to Fenianism, but considers a riot would not have occurred had not its first symptoms found apologists.

Judge Appointed.

RICHMOND, September 11.—General Schofield has issued an order detailing Col. H. B. Burnham, Judge Advocate of the United States army, to act as Judge of the Court of Hustings. This removes the necessity for an election to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Lyons.

PARIS, September 11.—Dispatches have been received here, announcing that Garibaldi will depart forthwith for the Roman frontier.

School Convention.

VIENNA, September 11.—A large body of school teachers, representing nearly all sections of the Empire, are in session in this city. A resolution in favor of petitioning the authorities for the separation of the public schools from the Church, was passed yesterday with great unanimity.

Doncaster Races.

LONDON, September 11, Evening.—This was the great day of the Doncaster races. The attendance was immense, and the interest in the races almost unprecedented. The municipal stakes, valued at £500, were won by Calytta. The corporation plate valued at £505, by A. L., and the Bradgate Patk stake by Leon. The St. Leger was the occasion of intense excitement. The great value of the stakes £5,245, and the fact that the best horses of the year were entered for the race, made the St. Leger of 1867 at least equal to any of its predecessors. The race was a splendid one, and won by Achievement. Hermit, who won the Derby, was second, and Julius third.

A Democratic Mass Meeting of Three Hundred-- A Slim Affair---Speech of Gen. Morgan.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

CRESTLINE, O., September 11, 1867.

The grand mass meeting of the Democrats at this place, which had been extensively advertised by conspicuous posters for some time past, at which General G. W. Morgan and Judge Van Trump were to speak, came off to-day and was a slim affair, many of the unterrified themselves being overheard to say that it fell short of the expectations of Crestline and Crawford counties, that had never before failed them. The meeting was held in a grove West of town, and notwithstanding the attractive influence of a brass band, a crowd of not over three hundred persons was got together, among whom could be counted many Republicans, attracted there, curious know to what new arguments, if any, would be brought out by these great lights of Democracy. Judge Van Trump, for some reason, was not present, and the afternoon speaking devolved entirely upon Gen. Morgan, who occupied between two and three hours with the sterotyped allusion to the finances of the country, and the "nigger." At the close of his speech, General Morgan read a telegram which had just been handed him, which represented that the elections in Maine had been very close and doubtful. This morsel of comfort brought out three cheers for Maine and California, the speaker and the Democrats of Ohio.

Our bar-rooms are doing a thriving business this afternoon, in consequence of which, it is expected, much enthusiasm will prevail at the meeting to-night, which is to be addressed by Judge Bliss, of Wooster.

GREAT FOUR OARED RACE

The Ward Brothers the Winners---The Time 39:28.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

NEW YORK, September 11, 1867.

At the Springfield "Grand Prize Race" this afternoon, the Ward Brothers won the race by one hundred yards, defeating the St. Johns' crew that distance. C.

Special Dispatch to Commercial.

SPRINGFIELD, September 11, 1867.

The Ward Brothers, Joshua, Gilbert, Henry and Charles, won the great four oared boat race at this place to-day, defeating the St. Johns' crew, the McCafferty Brothers, McCauley and Morris, by one-fourth of a mile.

J. H.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., September 11.—The great international four-oared rowing match between the Ward brothers, of Newburg, and the St. Johns, N. B., crew, came off to-day in the presence of an immense assemblage from every part of the United States and British provinces. The St. Johns crew having the inside, at three minutes past four P. M., the word was given to a fair and equal send-off. The Wards were quickest in getting to work, and drew rapidly ahead, and as they passed the one-mile stake were ten rods ahead. They turned the lower stakeboat, three miles, forty seconds ahead, and increased their lead all the way home, and came in the winners of the race by one minute and forty-eight seconds. The winning time was 39 minutes 28 seconds; St. Johns, 41 minutes 16 seconds.

ST. LOUIS.

Railroad Election---The Pomological Convention---Meeting of Telegraphers.

ST. LOUIS, September 11.—The lessees of the Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis Railroad arrived here to-day, and took formal possession of the road, and elected the old officers of the Company for the ensuing year.

Seventeen States are represented in the Pomological Convention now sitting here. No business was transacted to-day other than the delivery of welcoming addresses by Henry Mudd, of the Missouri State Horticultural Society, and Mr. Spaulding, the latter addressing the grape growers especially. Over three hundred are present. One of the features of the exhibition of fruit is some pears from a tree in Danvers, Mass., which was planted by John Endicott, first Governor of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay. The tree is supposed to have been planted a short time subsequent to the arrival of Governor Endicott in 1628.

The Fifth Annual Convention of the National Telegraphic Union met here to-day. Delegates representing practical telegraphers were present from all parts of the country.

NEW ORLEANS.

The Yellow Fever---Election of Negroes.

NEW ORLEANS, September 11.—The deaths from yellow fever during the twenty-four hours ending this morning, were sixty-seven.

In the Common Council last night, at the election for assistant recorders, one white and three negroes were chosen. Several other negroes were chosen for other municipal positions.

Two Breweries and Nine Dwellings Burned in Chicago.

CHICAGO, September 11.—Two breweries on Chicago avenue, belonging to Thomas G. Hanson and Charles Wœffer, together with nine dwelling houses, were destroyed by fire this morning. Hanson's loss is thirteen thousand dollars; Wœffer's thirty-five thousand dollars; insured for thirty thousand dollars.

THE GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE REFEREE'S DECISION.

Hamill Had the Right of Way.

Brown Pulled Out of His Course.

The recent aquatic contest on the Hudson has lost none of its interest in the accounts furnished of it in the New York papers. The COMMERCIAL's special correspondent's account, though brief, was correct, as it is corroborated in its main features by the New York papers. The Times gives the following interesting report of

THE RACE.

Brown won the choice of positions, and chose that nearest the shore. Each seemed fearful lest the other should have the start, and it was some time before the referee could get them on a parallel line. At length at 6:20 o'clock the word "Go" was given, and the long slender shell-boats shot like arrows from a bow towards the upper stake boat. Hamill, at the start, took the lead slightly, though the difference was almost imperceptible. Brown very soon, however, passed ahead of him, and led the first mile by a length. The difference in the style of rowing of the two men was very marked. Brown bent down to his work, reaching a point every time, it is said, four inches beyond his toes with his hands crossed, and then swung back with a long, graceful, English pull, bringing the muscles of his back as well as those of his arms fully into play. Hamill, on the contrary, rowed with the movement peculiar to him, which has gained for him the title of the "Little Engine." Bending but slightly and dipping his sculls much more rapidly than his antagonist, it seemed his effort to make up by the strength of his arms and the velocity of his movement for all that his adversary might gain by his long pull. It was an exhilarating sight to see them speeding through the waters, which were as calm as could be desired, accompanied by two long boats, each manned by a picked crew of the friends of the contestants. On they flew, and now in the second mile Hamill began to draw ahead—first a boat's length, then another, and finally four times the length of the boat intervened between the stern of Hamill's shell and the prow of Brown's. They were nearing the stake-boat rapidly now, Brown rowing on a line that directly pierced it, and Hamill many yards further from the Newburgh shore. As they came near to it Brown began to close the gap, while Hamill commenced drawing to the left, so as to pass around it. While crossing the path of Brown, the latter, with a few strokes, sprang forward, and his sharp prow dashed with great force through the side of Hamill's boat, thus presented to it, making a large rent through the thin cedar of the shell, a little behind the box on which the rower sat. The boat filled immediately, and Hamill was taken from it by his friends. The prow of Brown's boat for awhile stuck fast; but, disengaging it, Brown continued on his course, and rowed leisurely back to the starting point, reaching it in the slow time, from the moment of starting, of 41 minutes and 56 seconds. The time of the first two and a half miles was 19 minetes and 25 seconds.

A CLAIM OF FOUL.

The referee and judges met at eight o'clock, at the United States Hotel, to consider the merits of the race. The judges appointed on behalf of Hamill claimed a "foul." They declared that Brown had intentionally run into Hamill's boat, and that, therefore, the stakes should be handed to Hamill. Brown's judges, on the other hand, insisted that Hamill's boat was not far enough ahead to "show daylight" between it and Brown's; that under those circumstances, Brown, who had won the choice of positions, was entitled to the inside track, and that Hamill should have given him the right of way; that Hamill, after placing himself across Brown's path, stood still, and even backed, so as to make Brown run into him; that Hamill's boat had swerved from its course so as to impede the course of Brown's boat, which was contrary to the rules; and that Hamill had not claimed a "foul" personally, and it was not competent for his judges to claim it for him. The judges of each competitor were for awarding the victory to their several principals, so it was left to the referee to decide which should be declared the winner.

THE REFEREE'S DECISION.

Councilman Stephen Roberts, of New York, the referee, stepped forward on the balcony of the hotel, and made the following announcement: "Gentlemen, having heard the testimony given by the judges on both sides, who have failed to agree, it has become my duty to decide as to the winner of this race. As Mr. Hamill was ahead when he commenced to turn the stakeboat, he had, by the rules of boat racing, the right of the track. Mr. Brown should have gone outside of him. Therefore, I decide that Hamill won the race." Loud cries of "Brown, Brown—a speech from Brown," followed this announcement, but he did not respond, and the crowd, seeming to accept as conclusive, if not satisfactory, the decision, quietly began to disperse; and as this report closes there are only a few scattered knots of persons here and there in animated discussion to indicate that our quiet city has been disturbed by an event so exciting as a contest for the national championship of single scull rowing. Brown's judges have put in an appeal from the above decision, but to what higher authority they do not state.

BROWN'S TEMPER AT THE START.

Brown manifested impatience and a little bitterness at the delay occasioned in the arrangement of preliminaries, remarking to the referee, "You shall never be my referee, I bet; say—what do you mean to do with us! Are you going to let us off?" After some instructions as to turning the stake boat, the men were ordered to place a greater distance between them, and Hamill was told to be cautious about running across his opponent. To this Hamill replied, "Never fear; I never meddle with no man." One of the judges standing beside the referee here cried out, "Brown, you have won the toss of sides, which do you take?" "I'll just take where I am," retorted Brown, and stretching himself fully on his oars, added, "Are you ready yet?" The referee here raised his right hand over his left, and gave the word "Go," accompanied by a clap of his hands at twenty minutes past six o'clock.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE FOUL.

The Herald says: To the end of the upper course and approaching the stake boat Hamill kept this lead, and while he was in the act of turning the stakeboat, Brown fouled him, striking his boat two feet abaft the cockpit, cutting it in such a fearful manner that he was immediately compelled to disentangle himself from his settled position and find safety in the six-oared outrigger that had intended to accompany him the entire course. This was necessitated the more because Hamill cannot swim, and his tiny vessel seemed so frail as if one whistled a tune over it it would sink.

BROWN NEARLY DROWNED.

Walter Brown yesterday also had a narrow escape from drowning. While rowing with another man on the Hudson his boat was run into by a towboat. The men sprang into the water before the collision, and being good swimmers were easily saved. Brown laughed about the adventure, and spoke of it as a part of his training exercises.

THE "CLIPPER" ACCOUNT

Of the race is as follows: After considerable manœuvering, at exactly 18 minutes past 6 o'clock Councilman Roberts gave the word, and off they started at a very even gait, pulling away as if life or death was at stake. A very close contest ensued as far as could be seen from the starting point, Hamill taking the straight course, while Brown seemed to steer away out of latitude, and in this way a close and splendid struggle took place, Jimmy keeping the lead to the upper stake-boat and turning the same at 7:37, taking nineteen minutes to go half the distance. As Hamill was veering round at this point, Brown gained on him quite rapidly, and putting on a spurt, dashed up towards the stake-boat, and when about three feet from the cock-pit of Hamill's boat, drove clean into the same and smashed the boat, injuring it to such an extent that Hamil at once stopped rowing to save his craft from being swamped. Brown, however, continued on his course, but having no one to row against came down again at a pretty lively pace, going it alone, much to the surprise of those on the lower shore and on the lower stake-boat. All interest was lost on seeing Brown coming in without a competitor, and all sorts of rumors were flying around as to the why and wherefore. Brown accomplished the distance in 41 minutes, 56 seconds. After a tedious wait, the six oared boat which accompanied Hamill up came down and a protest was made that Brown had fouled Hamill. Something of the kind had been anticipated, and those who had crowed before they were out of the woods began to look a little dubious.

HAMILL AFTER THE DECISION.

Great cheering greeted this announcement, and the cry was "Hamill! Hamill!" until Jimmy came forward and made a few remarks. He was received with deafening applause, and a friend offered to back him against Brown to row again the same distance, staking $5,000 to Brown's $4,000. The contrast from the previous days when Brown ruled the hour was very striking, and Hamill can now return home with the satisfaction that he had the sympathy of the masses, who showed their feeling unmistakably. Some protested against giving up bets, but as they were all made to go with the race, according to the referee's decision, such protests came with an ill grace. From the evidence before us, we cannot help but express the opinion that Councilman Roberts, the stakeholder and referee, deserves great credit for the unbiased decision he gave, and the firmness he evinced in giving it.

BROWN CHALLENGED BY WM. JACKSON, SR.

On Monday evening, William Jackson, Sr., the veteran oarsman, recently defeated by Henry Coulter, on the Monongahela river, sent forward to Walter Brown a challenge to row a five mile race for a purse of one thousand dollars. Brown was so confident of winning the race with Hamill, that he declared in Newburg, on Friday, that he would row no more matches in this country, but was intent upon measuring oars with Kelley, the champion of England. He may not accept Jackson's challenge, but there are a large number of men in Pittsburgh who have expressed themselves ready and willing to back the veteran oarsman against the pretentious Portlander.

SECOND EDITION.

4 O'CLOCK, A. M.

WOOSTER, O.

Livery Stable Destroyed by Fire---Base Ball Match.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WOOSTER, OHIO, September 11, 1867.

Quite a large fire occurred in this city at about ten o'clock this evening, destroying four stables, one horse, two buggies, several set of harness, and a number of tons of hay. Fortunately, it did not spread any further before the efforts of the firemen succeeded in putting it out. The loss is estimated at about ten thousand dollars. The cause of the fire is unknown.

A match game of base ball was played in Smithville, O., to-day, between the Pocahontas, of Smithville, and the Killbucks, of this city. The Pocahontas won by a score of eighty-seven to fifty-three. A return match will be played on the Killbuck grounds on Saturday, September 14th.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Republican State Convention---Present State Officials Renominated.

WORCESTER, MASS, September 11.—The Republican State Convention assembled to-day. Henry Wilson was elected President, and made a brief speech denouncing Johnson, speaking eloquently of Stanton, Sheridan, Sickles and others who have been subjected to Exective vengeance or interference.

Governor Bullock was then re-nominated with the balance of the present State officers. Considerable discussion took place on the liquor question, when a report was adopted that it was inexpedient to take action either way on the temperance law question.

The Committee on Resolutions presented a series, which was adopted. One declares that prohibition never having been made a part of the policy of the Republican party, it should not be taken up and considered at this time.

Another condemns the President's course, and pledged support to Congress even to the extent of his removal from office.

LEAVENWORTH.

Enthusiastic Reception Given General Sheridan.

LEAVENWORTH, September 11.—General Sheridan arrived here at nine o'clock this morning, escorted by a committee of old soldiers and citizens who met him at the State line, among them Mayor Halderman, General Blunt, ex-Governor Carney, Colonel Moonlight, and other prominent gentlemen. A salute was fired on the arrival of the train, and a large concourse of citizens received the General with loud cheers. Arriving at the Planters' House, where a large multitude of people had assembled, the General appeared on the balcony and in a brief speech returned his thanks for the hearty welcome received. After partaking of refreshments the General and party proceeded to Fort Leavenworth. A torchlight procession, a formal welcome and banquet were to have been given to the General to-night, but he declined the compliment.

WISCONSIN.

Nominations of the Democratic State Convention.

MADISON, WIS., September 11.—The Democratic State Convention to-day nominated J. J. Tallmadge for Governor; G. L. Parks, Lieutenant Governor; Emil Rothe, Secretary of State; L. P. Wetherby, Attorney General; Ole Heg, Prison Commissioner; Peter Rupp, Fon Du Lac, Treasurer; L. C. Doorer, Supterintendent of Public Instruction; R. J. Harney, Bank Comptroller.

BOSTON.

Heavy Forgeries---Manufactory Burned ---Arrival.

BOSTON, September 11.—Forgeries to the amount of $15,000 or $20,000, are alleged against a young man named Frederick Hobbs, late in the lard and pork business, at 197 State street.

Patten's Refrigerator Manufactory at Roxbury, was destroyed by fire this evening. Several adjoining buildings were destroyed.

The steamer Orina, from Liverpool, arrived this afternoon.

GALVESTON.

Deaths from Yellow Fever---Appearance of the Epidemic in the Interior.

GALVESTON, September 11.—Rev. J. P. Parham, President of the Howard Association at Corpus Christi, died August 20th. Samuel Adams, Assistant Surgeon, U. S. A., died on the 9th inst. There were thirty-two deaths from yellow fever here on the 9th, and ten cases admitted to the city hospital to-day from the revenue cutter Delaware. The fever has appeared in La Grange and other interior towns.

Epidemic in the Dry Tortugas.

KEY WEST, September 11.—The steamer Matchles has arrived from Fort Jefferson, Tortugas. Dr. Cormick has a letter, stating that Major Stone, Commandant, and Lieuts. Orr and Romer and all the officers of the fort are down with the yellow fever, as well as many of the command and prisoners. Dr. Smith, Post Surgeon, died on the 8th inst. Mrs. Smith is better. Medicines, doctors and nurses are asked for. The Matchless will leave at once for the Tortugas, with all possible assistance. The yellow fever has somewhat abated here.

Movements of the Indian Commissioners.

SIOUX CITY, September 11.—The Indian Commission reached here to-day, all well. Councils were held with all the different bands as far as Fort Sully. Indian reservations were situated on Big Cheyenne river, and at the mouth of the Niobrara. The Commission will leave at once for Omaha, from thence to Fort Laramie, to visit hostile tribes.

The Order of Good Fellows.

BUFFALO, September 11.—The annual convention of the Order of Good Fellows met this morning. Delegates are in attendance from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland and the District of Columbia. Others are expected to-night. The Order will visit Niagara Falls to-morrow. An election of officers will probably take place on Friday.

Storm at Savannah.

SANANNAH, September 11.—There has been a heavy rain storm all day. One house was struck by lightning and badly damaged. Mrs. C. Roche was killed. The track of the Atlantic and Niagara Railroad was washed away near the depot, but travel is not interrupted.

Admiral Palmer at Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, September 11.—Arrived, flag-ship Susquehanna, Admiral Palmer, from St. Thomas on the 5th inst. The Monongahela had arrived, and the Penobscot sailed for Washington.

The Fair at Norristown.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., September 11.—The great International State Fair opened to-day. The display of stock and implements exceeded anything ever witnessed in this section. Over forty trotting horses are entered.

STATE POLITICS.

The contest in the Twenty-first Senatorial district Republican Conference, which met at Lewistown on the 6th, was quite protracted. On the first ballot, the vote stood: Samuel McVitty, 4; L. W. Hall, 5; D. W. Woods, 3; J. K. Robison, 3; Wm. P. Wilson, 3. Thirty-five ballots having been had with results varying in the case of each candidate from one vote to six, the thirty-sixth resulted as follows: McVitty, 10; Hall, 5; Woods, 3. Samuel McVitty, of Huntingdon county, having a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee by the unanimous vote of the Conference. Thirty-seventh ballot: Hall, 5; Woods, 3; Robison, 10. Col. John K. Robison, of Juniata county, being declared duly nominated, the nomination was made unanimous. The Conference indorsed the State Platform, and adopted the following resolution, all the candidates having pledged themselves to use their influence and votes to secure the passage of laws in accordance with the resolution:

Resolved, That the industrial interests of this Senatorial District demand the passage of a free Railroad Law, and the regulation by law of local freights on all the railroads in the State on the pro rata per mile through basis, with a just percentage added for short distances, and in such a manner as to prevent all discrimination as between individuals or individuals and companies either in freight or passage.

Hon. John Hickman, on being notified of his nomination for the Legislature, made a brief address to the West Chester Republican Committee, which he concluded as follows: "My platform is a very plain and distinct one. I am opposed to filchings from the public treasury and general legislative corruption—I am in favor of the negro and against Andrew Johnson and his policy."

MINNESOTA.

Nominations of the Republican State Convention.

ST. PAUL, MINN., September 11.—The Republican State Convention to-day nominated W. R. Marshall for Governor; S. H. Armstrong, Lieutenant Governor; Col. Rogers, Secretary of State; Emil Munch, Treasurer; R. E. Connell, Attorney General. All the nominations were made unanimous. Resolutions of the usual Republican character were passed, including one opposing the payment of Minnesota Railroad bonds by the State.

CITY MATTERS.

STREET PAVING.—The lower portion of Carson street and Grosvenor street, in Birmingham, is being repaved.

POCKET PICKED.—A market woman had her pocket picked in the Allegheny market house Tuesday, of a pocket book containing thirty dollars. There is no clue to the thief.

NEW HALL CHRISTENED.—The new hall, built by Mr. Hartman, on Fifth street, McKeesport, was opened to the public for the first time on Tuesday evening, and was christened "Franklin Hall."

THE BIRMINGHAM ENGINE HOUSE.—The new engine house being built on Wilkins street, near Carson, Birmingham, for the use of the Mechanics' Hose Company, of that borough, is rapidly approaching completion. The brickwork has all been completed and workmen are now engaged on the wood-work. The building is a large three-story brick and will present a handsome appearance when finished.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—A man named John Salisbury, living in Birmingham, borrowed a pistol on Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of shooting a dog, and while passing along Carson street, had a few words with a crowd of men, when he pulled out the pistol and fired into the crowd indiscriminately, the ball passing through the fleshy part of the thigh of Mr. Wm. Uncks, and injuring him quite severely. Salisbury fled and had not been arrested at last accounts.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning the mangled body of a man named Gray was found lying on the track of the Connellsville Railroad, in the vicinity of Shaner's Station, in Westmoreland county, twenty-three miles from this city. It is supposed that on the previous night the deceased when under the influence of liquor, laid down on the track, fell asleep and was run over by the through freight train which passes that point during the night. The deceased was a miner, and had been employed at the Black Ball Coal Works.

AN INSURANCE CLERK DECAMPS WITH $400.—One C. S. Forester, in the employ, as a clerk, of Mr. Cook, Insurance Agent on Fourth street, decamped on Monday afternoon last with over four hundred dollars insurance money. Forester had been sent to the house of Mr. Paisley, of the Ninth ward, to insure that gentleman's life for ten thousand dollars, and was paid over four hundred dollars by Mr. Paisley for the insurance policy. After he got the money he decamped for parts unknown, and has not been seen or heard of since.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Tuesday a widow woman in indigent circumstances, named Mrs. Jane McClymonds, residing on Second street, died very suddenly. Some weeks since she gave birth to an illegitimate child, and on Tuesday it was seized with spasms. The mother, being ill and weak, caused, it is supposed, by the want of proper nourishment, became greatly excited, and laid down on a settee. A neighbor, a few minutes afterwards, endeavored to arouse her, when it was discovered that she was dead. Coroner Clawson was notified and held an inquest on the body yesterday, when the jury rendered a verdict of "death from natural causes." The deceased was about thirty years of age, and leaves three children. The youngest was sent to the Poor Farm yesterday, while the other two were taken charge of by charitable citizens.

Destructive Fire in Temperanceville.

About ten o'clock on Tuesday night the extensive glass manufactory of Messrs. Fahnestock, Albree & Co., situated in Temperanceville, near the Ohio River, took fire accidentally. The citizens residing in the vicinity hastened to the scene and labored assiduously to extinguish the flames, but their efforts proved unsuccessful, owing to the absence of fire apparatus. A messenger was then dispatched on horseback to this city for assistance, and upon informing the members of the Duquesne of the fire, they immediately proceeded to Temperanceville with their steamer, and succeeded in checking the flames before the building had been entirely destroyed. The loss has not yet been definitely ascertained, but it will hardly fall short of $20,000, upon which there is an insurance of $8,000.

Affray on the Allegheny Suspension Bridge—A Man Shot.

On Tuesday night about twelve o'clock, a disagreement occurred on St. Clair street, between two men named James McMullen and James Miller. The matter was arranged at the time, and Miller started across the Suspension Bridge to his home in Allegheny. He had not proceeded far, however, when he noticed five men following him, McMullen being among the number. He stopped and inquired what they wanted, when they assaulted him, forcing him to return to the Pittsburgh end of the bridge, and take shelter in the toll house. McMullen came along shortly afterwards, and noticing Miller sitting upon a chair in the toll house, drew a pistol and fired two shots at him through the window, one of the shots taking effect in his right hand, inflicting a painful wound. Mr. Peter Coll, the toll collector, was sitting in front of the window, and the shots were fired over his shoulder. The reports of the pistol attracted the attention of officer Moore, of the night police, who hurried to the bridge, but the party had separated and fled before his arrival. Miller visited the office of Dr. W. R. Childs, where his wound was dressed. The cause of the difficulty between the parties has not yet been ascertained.

INTERESTING CEREMONY AT SEWICKLEY.

Dedication of a Monument by Masonic Ceremonies---Order of Exercises---Oration by Rev. McIlyar.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

SEWICKLEYVILLE, September 11, 1867.

Our quiet village has been the scene of quite a demonstration on the part of the Masonic fraternity to-day. The occasion was the dedication of a monument erected by the Alliance Lodge A. Y. M., over the remains of John Fitzsimmons, who was killed May 28th, 1866, while running a locomotive on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company. About two hundred members of the order, from Alliance, New Brighton, Rochester, Allegheny and Pittsburgh, preceded by a fine brass band, marched in procession, clothed in the regalia of the order, under the direction of J. Johns, Esq., of this village, who had been chosen Marshal for the occasion. The ceremonies at the monument were under the direction of the Master of the Alliance Lodge, and were conducted according to the following programme:

ODE.

Prayer, by Chaplain.

The vessel of Corn is presented to the Master, who says:

This Corn is an emblem of plenty. May the blessings of Heaven be showered upon us and upon all like undertakings, and inspire our hearts with virtue, wisdom and gratitude.

Response by the Brethren: SO MOTE IT BE.

The vessel of wine is presented to the Master, who says:

This wine is an emblem of joy and gladness. May the Great Ruler of the Universe bless and prosper our National, State and Municipal Governments; preserve the Union of the States, and may it be a bond of Friendship and Brotherly love that shall endure through all time.

Response by the Brethren: SO MOTE IT BE.

The vessel of Oil is presented to the Master, who says:

This Oil is an emblem of peace. May its blessings abide with us continually, and may the Grand Master of Heaven and earth shelter and protect the widow and orphan, shield and defend them from the trials and vicissitudes of the world and so bestow his mercy upon the bereaved and the afflicted that they may know sorrow and trouble no more.

Response by the Brethren: SO MOTE IT BE.

In the name of the donors and the whole Fraternity I do solemnly dedicate this Monument to the memory of Our Brother.

Grand Honors repeated three times.

INVOCATION.

Response by the Brethren: SO MOTE IT BE.

MUSIC BY THE BAND.

ORATION.

Music.

BENEDICTION.

Procession again formed and march back to the place of setting out.

The oration was delivered by Rev. J. J. McIllyar, of New Brighton, and was well received by the assembled audience. It was a fine tribute to the worth of the deceased, and highly laudatory of the order which has shown so much of respect, as is indicated in the erection of this beautiful and costly monument to his memory.

At the close of the address the procession formed and returned to the village, where they were disbanded. The monument is the work of Messrs. Boyd, Anderson & Co., and is an obelisk of marble resting upon granit base. On the obelisk is sculptured a locomotive, the name and date of birth and death of the deceased, and the fact that the monument was erected to his memory by the brethren of the Alliance Lodge, assisted by other lodges on the line of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad. The cost of the monument was near $600 00. The whole affair passed off very pleasantly, and nothing occurred to mar the harmony and spirit of the day. Rev. McIllyar was the guest of F. M. Hutchinson, Esq., whose services in arranging for the dedication were duly appreciated. K.

THE O'NEILL LIBEL SUITS.

Trial of the Case of James B. O'Neill Against Daniel O'Neill for Libel.

Yesterday morning, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, after the jury in the case of Victor Keller, Jr., charged with the murder of James Goldrich, had retired to deliberate upon a verdict, the case of the Commonwealth vs. Daniel O'Neill, indicted for libel, on oath of James B. O'Neill, was taken up. This was an action originating in the publication in the Pittsburgh Dispatch, of a letter written by Daniel O'Neill, one of the proprietors of that paper. On the 20th of April last, J. B. O'Neill applied to the Court of Common Pleas for a divorce from his wife, basing his application upon a confession made by her that she had committed adultery with Daniel O'Neill. The application was placed on file in the Prothonotary's office, where it was discovered by a reporter of the Sunday Leader, who published it. At the time of such publication Daniel O'Neill was in New York City on a bridal tour, and four days afterwards a communication appeared in the columns of the Dispatch, signed by D. O'Neill, contained statements claimed by J. B. O'Neill to be libellous, when he immediately made information before the Mayor against Daniel O'Neill for libel. It having been announced that the case would be taken up yesterday, the court room was crowded with spectators, who appeared to be greatly interested in the proceedings.

An unusual array of counsel appeared for both parties. Messrs. John M. Kirkpatrick, A. M. Brown, R. Riddle Roberts, John Mellon and Wm. C. Moreland, Esqs., represented the defendant, while Robert M. Gibson, of Washington county, M. Swartzwelder, Wm. D. Moore and H. P. Mueller, Esqs., appeared on the part of the prosecution. The case was opened about noon by Mr. Moore, who read the indictment, and section four of the Penal Code of Pennsylvania, defining the nature and penalty of libel, concluding by stating that the prosecution expected to prove that the article in question had been published for the purpose of defaming the character of the prosecution.

A. G. Hirt, the first witness called, testified to having purchased on the 24th of April last, a copy of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, containing the alleged libellous article. He purchased it from a small boy in the Dispatch office. On cross-examination the witness said he had bought the paper for Jas. B. O'Neill at his request.

Alexander W. Rook was called upon to show that the defendant was one of the proprietors of the Dispatch, and that he caused the article in question to be printed and published. The counsel for the defense, however, admitted that fact, and Mr. Rook was not sworn.

Mr. Swartzwelder then offered the paper mentioned in evidence.

Mr. Roberts, counsel for the defense, objected to the Commonwealth putting the whole article alleged to have been written by the defendant, in evidence, as the indictment only cited portions of it, which were alleged by them to be libellous.

Mr. Swartzwelder said that the entire article was presented, in order to prove that portions of it were libellous, and that it was written by defendant.

Mr. Brown objected to the prosecution culling out portions of the article and offering it in evidence.

After some further discussion the Court overruled the objection.

Mr. Swartzwelder offered in evidence the application of Jas. B. O'Neill for divorce from his wife.

Objection being made by Mr. Roberts, the Court decided that the paper could be admitted as part of the record to show that proceedings for divorce were pending.

Mr. Swartzwelder then read to the jury the portions of the article in the Dispatch, set forth in the indictment to be the libellous matter.

Jos. E. Robinson was sworn and testified to having read in the Dispatch the portions of the article in question, which were alleged to be libellous. By reading only the portions of the article set forth in the indictment he would infer that it referred to James B. O'Neill.

Wm. M. Hartzell testified that after reading marked portions of the article, he understood them to refer to James B. O'Neill, but formed his impression from having previously read the whole article.

The Commonwealth here closed the case.

Mr. Brown contended that the evidence of the witnesses should be excluded, on the ground that their impressions were not evidence, they having been formed after reading the whole article.

Judge Stowe remarked that the point had been well taken, and ordered that the testimony referred to be withdrawn.

Mr. Gibson spoke at considerable length against the exclusion of the testimony, as it was the only ground upon which to prove the alleged libel.

Judge Stowe—It was the opinion of the witnesses that the paragraph referred to J. B. O'Neill, and that was a question alone for the jury to decide. There is now no question before the Court.

Mr. Swartzwelder offered a copy of the Dispatch, without reference to any other fact to prove that the libel referred to J. B. O'Neill.

Mr. Brown objected to the offer, on the ground that the article excluded what was in justification of the defendant.

Judge Stowe announced that the entire article would be considered in evidence for the benefit of both parties. The evidence before ruled out, was restored to the jury, on the admission by the defense that the whole article referred to was written by defendant and published in his paper.

Mr. Swartzwelder then read to the jury the entire article in question, and proceeded to close the case for the Commonwealth. He reviewed the evidence that had been adduced, and argued that the jury should render a verdict of guilty. Mr. Swartzwelder spoke for about half an hour, and upon concluding, the counsel for defense declined to address the jury. Judge Stowe delivered the customary charge, defining the law of libel, and said that the jury had not only to pass upon the publication, but whether or not it had been prompted by malice. The jury retired about three o'clock, and the Court adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock.

At a late hour last night the jury agreed upon a verdict, and after sealing it, separated and retired to their homes. The verdict will be announced this morning upon the opening of the Court.

Central Board of Education.

The Central Board of Education met on Tuesday evening, September 10th, 1867.

Present—Messrs. Crawford, Getty, Lowe, McAuley, McCook, Nobbs, Sergeant, Wilson and Brush, President.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The monthly reports of the Principal of the High School, and of the Secretary were read and ordered to be received and filed.

A communication from A. Vander Naillen, Teacher of Drawing in High School, tendering his resignation. Read and accepted.

Mr. John Earle was nominated and elected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Samuel E. Herron was elected Collector of the Ninth ward vice James Irwin resigned.

On motion an appropriation of $150 was made to each of the Ward Schools and to the Colored School, for the support of Night Schools, said schools to be continued sixty-five nights.

On motion adjourned.

Arrivals from the Oil Regions.

P. R. Gray, Sheriff of Venango county, on Monday evening last, consigned to the Western Penitentiary, the following named individuals, convicted at the last term of the Venango County Court: Patrick Sullivan, assault and battery with intent to commit rape, four years and six months; Reuben E. Jones, Patrick Burns and John Clark, horse stealing, three years and six months each; for larceny: Howard Piersoll, three years and six months; George McBride, two years; and Thomas Shay, John Johnson, Andrew Hurley, and Peter Schinck, each one year. Venango furnishes her quota every term of Court to this institution. The Sheriff states that he has twenty-eight prisoners still confined in the county jail—some under sentence for minor offenses, and others awaiting their trial at the next term.

Strike Among Coal Diggers.

For a week or two past the coal diggers employed in the Duquesne Coal Works, between Wilkinsburg and Swissvale, at the Swissvale Coal Works, of Messrs. Dickson, Stewart & Co., at the works of Corey & Co., and at those of Clancy & Co., at Braddock station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, have been on a strike for higher wages. It seems that the proprietors of the four works named have only been paying three and three and a half cents per bushel, and the miners demand four cents, giving as a reason that the diggers on the Pan Handle road, and at other points, are receiving four cents per bushel. We understand that negotiations are now in progress which will likely end in the diggers resuming work at an early day.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Wednesday, the 4th inst., as Mr. Robert Scott, a miner, employed at the coal works of Messrs. Corey & Co., at Braddock's Fields, was walking over the trustle works, on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, near Port Perry, he was shot at by some unknown parties who had concealed themselves in some bushes on the side of the road. The cause of this outrage is not known, and Messrs. Corey & Co. offer a reward of five hundred dollars for information that will lead to the detection and conviction of the miscreants.

HOME AGAIN.—Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, pastor of the Third United Presbyterian Church, Ridge street, Allegheny, arrived home a few days ago, after an absence of three months in Europe. He is in excellent health, and it is understood that he will resume his pastoral duties on Sabbath next.

CONSOLIDATION MEETING.—A meeting of all those who feel an interest in the subject of consolidation will be held on Saturday evening, at half-past seven o'clock, at the corner of Carson and Railroad streets, East Birmingham.

LOST.—See advertisement of the loss of an elevation of a House, for which the finder will be rewarded at the Real Estate Savings Bank, No. 63 Fourth street.

THE GOLDRICH MURDER CASE.

Acquittal of Kellar.

The trial of Victor G. Kellar, for the murder of James Goldrich, was resumed yesterday morning in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judges Stowe and Sterrett.

At nine o'clock the prisoner was brought in and placed in the dock.

Judge Stowe then proceeded to charge the jury, referring to the requisites necessary to make out a case by circumstantial evidence. He then reviewed the testimony in the case, especially that bearing upon the positions of the prisoner and the deceased at the time the shot was fired. The facts were left entirely with the jury, the Court declining to express or even indicate any opinion whatever in the premises. The degrees of homicide, as applicable to the case, were then explained, and the jury was left to apply the law, as thus laid down, in the light of the facts as detailed by the witnesses. Their oath as jurors, and their duty to society would prevent them from acquitting the guilty, on light and unsubstantial grounds; and at the same time their duty to the defendant would justify an acquittal unless fully satisfied of his guilt.

At half-past nine o'clock the jury retired, and, contrary to general expectation, remained out till one o'clock. Then they came into court, not to render a verdict but to obtain some instructions, or, rather, to have their memories refreshed as to the testimony of James Marshall.

Judge Stowe produced his notes of evidence, and read the testimony of the witness to them; and from questions asked by some of the jurors it was evident that they differed as to the number of persons in the room, and the positions of the deceased and the prisoner at the time the shot was fired.

The jury then returned to their room, and at ten minutes before three they appeared and rendered a verdict of "not guilty." The prisoner, whose anxiety just before the rendition of the verdict was plainly marked in his features, was then discharged by proclamation, and on stepping from the dock received the congratulations of his relative and friends.

We understand that the jury, on taking their first ballot, stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal. After some discussion, two of the seven yielded in favor of acquittal. This was the position of affairs when the jury went into Court to satisfy themselves on the disputed points in the testimony of Mr. Marshall. On their return the other five gradually yielded, and a verdict of not guilty was arrived at. It is evident that, had the testimony been a little more explicit in regard to the position of the parties, a different result might have followed the trial. The jury had a very difficult task to perform, and they seem to have been actuated in their deliberations of a high sense of their responsibilities.

Allegheny Temperance League.

The Allegheny Temperance League held their regular meeting Tuesday evening in Rev. Dr. McMillan's Church, corner of Sandusky street and Gay alley, the President, Rev. J. B. Clark, in the chair, and W. G. Warren and W. G. Freeborn, Secretaries. After the regular opening exercises, the Executive Committee, through Secretary W. G. Warren, reported progress in the matter of holding outdoor meetings. Report laid over until next meeting.

Rev. Dr. McMillan made a striking and forcible speech, calling upon Christians to witness the great and growing interest that is now being taken in the cause.

By request, Prof. M. F. Eaton, of Philadelphia, read a select piece from a temperance paper, called "The Destruction Railroad."

The Rev. A. K. Bell asked for information as to what action the Executive Committee had taken in regard to the side issues abroad among the people. The question was answered by Mr. M. McGonnigle and others, that the side issues and questions before the people were all being properly looked after.

Mr. John D. Bailey, of Pittsburgh, addressed the meeting as to the success of the cause in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

On motion adjourned with benediction by Rev. McMillan. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening next in the Ohio Avenue M. E. Church, at 7½ o'clock P. M.

The League Choir enlivened the exercises by giving some of their most excellent music. The improvement in their singing is manifested weekly, and the people of Allegheny know how to encourage them by applauding them at each meeting with the greatest unction. This was one of the largest meetings ever held in the city. The temperance people are waking up.

Base Ball.

JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH.

The Resolute and Olympic Clubs play their first match game for the junior championship on Thursday, the 12th inst., at Union Park, Allegheny. A closely contested game is anticipated.

"WAKE FROM THY SLUMBERS."—This is the title of Prof. J. William Pope's latest musical production, which has just been published by Messrs. Hammer & Toerge, No. 50 Seventh street. The words and music are composed by Mr. Pope, and the piece has been arranged for the piano by Mr. Nicholas Toerge.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Mayor McCarthy.]

A LIQUOR SELLER IN TROUBLE.

Peter Murphy, proprietor of a drinking saloon on Webster street, was arrested yesterday, charged with selling liquor without a license, selling to minors, and selling on Sunday. After a hearing, the Mayor held the case for Court, and Peter, failing to give the required security, was committed to jail in default.

[Before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.]

WIFE BEATING.

A man named Christian Henry was arrested yesterday by officer Scott, of the Allegheny police, on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by his wife, who alleges that he has been in the habit of beating and abusing her of late. The parties live in the Second ward, Allegheny. The accused is in the lock-up awaiting a hearing.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASES.

John Handlin was arrested yesterday, charged with assault and battery upon oath of John McCaffrey, by beating and abusing him. The parties live in Lawrenceville. The case was held for trial.

Michael Welsh charged Harry Donahue with assault and battery. The parties live in the Third ward, and a quarrel arising between them in regard to the use of a dray, Donahue, it is alleged, attacked and beat Welsh. The accused gave bail to answer at Court.

TWO CHARGES.

Mary Carney was arrested on two charges preferred by Hannah Flaherty—one for assault and battery and the other for surety of the peace. Hannah alleges that Mary attacked her, pulled her hair, beat her in the face and also threatened to "split her head open with a skillet." The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

LARCENY OF CLOTHING.

Mollie Milliams charged Sarah Cane with having stolen from her a quantity of clothing. The parties are colored and live in "Hayti." A hearing in the case has not yet been had.

REFUSED TO RETURN HIS WAGON.

Oliver Graham was charged with larceny as bailee, on oath of Michael Keenan. The parties are residents of the Eighth ward, and Keenan alleges that he loaned a wagon to Graham, and that the latter refused to return it. Held for a hearing.

THREATENED TO SHOOT HIM.

Henry Campbell made oath charging Albert Taylor with surety of the peace, alleging that the latter threatened to shoot him with a gun. The accused was held to bail for trial. The parties reside in Robinson township.

[Before Alderman Donaldson.]

HELD FOR TRIAL.

J. C. Brown, charged with stealing a horse from Stephen Detrich, of Westmoreland county, had a final hearing yesterday, which resulted in his being committed to jail for trial, in default of one thousand dollars bail.

WANTED—AGENTS—$75 to $200 per month, everywhere, male and female, to introduce throughout the United States, the Genuine Improved Common Sense Family Sewing Machine. This Machine will stitch, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We will pay $1,000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address SECOMB & CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

CAUTION—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast-iron machines, under the same name or otherwise. Ours is the only genuine and really practical cheap machine manufactured.

FOR SALE—PROPERTY—A small Property, well located on Highland Avenue, East Liberty. Good Dwelling of 10 Rooms and nice ground, over half an acre. Apply to GEO. H. HOLTZMAN, Real Estate Broker, 146 Wood st., (Board of Trade Rooms,) Pittsburgh.

FOR SALE—LAND—Four Acres of Ground, on Mount Hope, adjoining property of Alex. Taylor, Esq. One of the finest views of the neighborhood, embracing the Islands in the Ohio river, Manchester, Allegheny, part of Pittsburgh and the surrounding country. Five minutes walk from Railroad or Street Car Station. Inquire of JAS. W. ARROTT, No. 37 Fifth street.

FOR SALE—PATENT RIGHTS—Of Woodworth's celebrated Water Elevator, patented September 5, 1866. Also, L. J. Baker's Perpetual Animal Trap, patented December 5, 1865. Rights sold or exchanged. Send stamp for circular. JOHN L. MARSHALL, New Castle, Pa.

FOR SALE—HOTEL—The National Hotel on Main street, Oil City, three stories high, well built, in good repair and thoroughly furnished throughout. Will be sold at a bargain and immediate possession given. Inquire of DANIEL F. CLARK, Oil City, or S. H. PAINE, No. 7 Hancock street, Pittsburgh. tf

FOR SALE—ROCK SAND—Perfectly clean Rock Sand for making Glass; delivered on cars at the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Station in this city, at $4 50 per net ton. Sample may be seen at my office, or will be sent to any party applying. GEORGE H. HOLTZMAN, Broker, 146 Wood street, Board of Trade Rooms, Pittsburgh.

FOR SALE—VALUABLE PROPERTY IN ALLEGHENY.—A lot of ground fronting 118 feet on South avenue, extending back from the river 165 feet to a 20 foot public way, which divides it from the lots fronting on Rebecca street, thus having access both front and rear. The river frontage is the finest in the two cities. The situation and surface appearance of this ground is most striking, and affords the choicest opportunity now available for an elegant residence in the coolest and quietest part of Allegheny, while, at the same time, but a few steps from the city railroad, which connects it with the business portion of Allegheny or Pittsburgh. On this property stand the finest shade trees in this vicinity. One of these is probably unequaled in the State, or indeed in many States, being an elm of several centuries growth, measuring nine feet diameter through its trunk at head height from the ground, and extending its shade over an area of nearly 8,000 square feet. An old style mansion house stands upon the property, as well as out-houses. The owner, regarding it as little short of sacrilege to divide this splendid property, desires to dispose of it as a whole to one purchaser, and the sum asked for it is unquestionably low. For price and terms apply to GEO. H. HOLTZMAN, Real Estate Broker, 146 Wood street, Board of Trade Rooms, Pittsburgh.

FOR SALE — DESIRABLE SITE — For Country Residence, containing about 10 Acres, beautifully located, within three minutes' walk of Hazlewood Station, Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad. For sale cheap and terms easy. JOHN D. BAILEY & BRO., 102 Fourth street. eod

FOR SALE--REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE—FARM—An excellent Farm of 221 acres, situated about one mile from a proposed Station on the Chartiers Valley Railroad, which is now about to be completed, and 12 miles from the city by the Washington Pike, which runs through the place, dividing it into two nearly equal parts. About 170 acres cleared and in good productive condition—the rest is covered with the finest white oak timber. It is well watered, and the whole farm is underlaid with the Pittsburgh vein of coal. A good Brick Mansion of 10 Rooms, and a tenant house. Will be sold in whole or in parts to suit purchasers. For terms, apply to N. W. SHAFFER, Esq., 83 Diamond street; or J. S. RANKIN, M. D., 100 Fifth street.

FOR SALE--HOUSES.

FOR SALE—HOUSE AND LOT—That very desirable three story Brick Dwelling House, with slate roof, containing 10 Rooms, very handsomely finished with Marble Mantles and Wash Stands, solid Mahogany Doors, Dumb Waiters, hall and dining room floors laid with English Tile, in variegated colors. This is one of the most desirable residences in the city; within three minutes walk of the Market House and Postoffice. Will be sold at a bargain. Inquire of JAS. W. ARROTT, No. 37 Fifth street.

FOR SALE—HOUSE AND LOT—Situate at Shousetown, Pa. The Lot is small and has erected on it a small House, containing three rooms and kitchen. For further information inquire of JOHN HAMILTON, Shousetown, Pa., or THOS. GIBSON, Perrysville, Pa. eod

OUR CANDIDATE.

Hon. Henry W. Williams.

[From the Pittsburgh Post, June 23.]

WORTHY CANDIDATES.

"The nomination of Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Suprema Court, is a good one. He was the best man named before the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated. Both parties have now presented their candidates. An important duty has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campaign may now be conducted without personal aspersions, and decided upon the principles of the two great parties. This is as it should be."

[From the Pittsburgh Post, August 23.]

If the notice of Judge Williams's nomination which appeared in the "Post" at the time, and now kept standing at the head of the Republican papers, is intended as a rebuke for any supposed inconsistency since, it fails in its purpose. We have nothing to take back or modify. Of Judge Williams's private or legal reputation we have nothing but words of praise, and however it may suit some pugnacious and heady politicians, we cannot bring ourselves to view personal assaults as either wise or politic. The Democracy plants itself upon principle and deals with facts, and discusses the public and official acts of candidates.

THE Columbus Statesman, the well-known Democratic organ in Ohio, has come out for the proposed amendment to the Constitution, giving suffrage to colored men. What has the Pittsburgh Post to say to that?

THE other day we said that the Proclamations and the general conduct of the President were well calculated to awaken expectation in the minds of such men as SAUNDERS, BLACKBURN, and other outlawed rebels wandering over the face of the earth. And so it turns out, BLACKBURN asks to be let in by a side-door process. Being great in the yellow fever line, he has offered his services in the Southern States where the plague prevails, if permitted to return. General GRANT, to whom the offer was made, declined it. It will be recollected that BLACKBURN is the creature who concocted the scheme to introduce yellow fever into Northern cities under the patronage of the DAVIS Confederacy. It looks as if he must rely—and not in vain—upon a special pardon from JOHNSON.

WHOEVER has watched the nominations cannot doubt that the people of Pennsylvania are determined to secure a Legislature in favor of a General Railroad Law, and will not cheat them "for love or money." With rare exceptions those who opposed the Free Bill last winter, or were in any manner unsound, have been permitted to stay at home. In no instance should a candidate be voted for without pledges so direct and satisfactory that he cannot escape from fulfilling them. We think Senator LOWRY, in the Erie District, will bear questioning, and we hope that an answer will be obtained from him. This is a good time to run the least possible risk. We are led to believe from the relishable way that those who last winter undertook to look one way and now another, have been pitched overboard by the people, there is not much disposition to take candidates on trust.

ONE CITY.

Our citizens, in the cities and the vicinage, will before long be called to decide finally the question that has been so long under consideration—the question of consolidation. It has been extensively agitated and discussed, and little more needs to be said, except to keep the subject fairly before the minds of the people, as the election approaches. Comparatively little has been said in opposition to the measure itself, and not very much against the plan embodied in the law for its accomplishment. We have, it is true, heard local objections, attachment to a name, and sundry apprehensions brought up in opposition; but we must candidly say, that if there has been a valid objection or a weighty argument adduced, it has escaped our observation.

That there is a popular tendency, in favor of having cities and populations that are occupants of the same locality, embodied in one municipality and known by one name, is a fact that has been developed and illustrated during these very discussions. To this tendency, under the impulse of common advantages to be gained, we ascribe the recent consolidation of Allegheny and the Borough of Manchester. The further extension of the process may be expected to produce a proportionate benefit to all concerned. It is not a measure for the special benefit of any part of the population or any section of the locality, but for the advantage of all. We cannot see, nor has any one been able to show, that the larger city of Pittsburgh is to share disproportionately in the benefits of the measure, nor that the smaller city of Allegheny or any of the boroughs is to lose a single advantage by it, that they now enjoy. In regard to expense of administration, to safety and convenience, and to the general prestige, among the cities of the land, all will be gainers; and, if there be a difference, the smaller places will gain more than the old central city.

If there be reasons against unifying our score of towns into one city, they ought, of course, to have influence, according to their weight. If there be only local, nominal or hereditary prejudices, it is equally plain, that they ought to give way before the strong reasons in favor of the plan. Our readers will, of course, as they should, judge for themselves. If all citizens shall judge for themselves and not be swayed by those who have only the mere prejudice of names and the associations of birth-place or the greed of local office, to array them against a measure of public and general utility, the result in this case will be right and satisfactory.

THE RUSSIAN ULTIMATUM.

The interchange of congratulations, on the bright peace prospects of Europe, has hardly been made among the courts and the sovereigns, before the anticipated tranquility is menaced from a new quarter. Or rather, a question of long-standing has suddenly been submitted for speedy decision. The Russian Government has, according to a dispatch by cable to the Tribune, demanded of the Sultan the cession of Crete to Greece, and also the grant, to all the Christian subjects of the Sultan, of equal rights with his Turkish subjects. This is the ultimatum of Russia on the Eastern Question. The answer is asked within ten days. And what then?

This is the first practical step, probably, in the project of the Russian Emperor for the expulsion of the Ottoman power from Europe. If successful, the direct accession of power to Greece would be but one of the incidental results. The bestowal of equal rights on the Christian, or, in other words, Greek races, in European Turkey, where they are more numerous by far than the Mohammedans—eleven million to four million—would doubtless lead to the assertion and maintenance of their independence and the hopeless prostration of the Turkish Government in Europe. The same causes, whether of a civil or religious character, that give the Czar his interest and influence with the Sultan's subjects, will continue to operate till his purposes are effected or frustrated.

But what or who is there to frustrate them? Not the Turkish power, for it is too weak. England, Austria and France are and have been, most concerned about this Eastern question. England's costly participation in it, in the Crimean war, afforded experience which will not probably be repeated. France and Austria, should they be combined to maintain the Turkish Government, would be confronted by Russia with Prussia as an ally. This, however, may not daunt them. The interests involved are vast, especially to Austria, and the oppressive policy of Russia, eastward, will be likely, if necessary, to call out all the resources of Austria in withstanding it. The further developments will be awaited with deep anxiety. Great questions are involved in this movement of the Emperor of Russia, in which is demonstrated his claim and control over the civil relations and obligations of the subjects of another government, in virtue of their subjection to him as a spiritual ruler.

JUDGE WILLIAMS'S BIRTH PLACE.

No amount of research upon the part of the Democracy in regard to our candidate for Supreme Judge can develop anything against Judge WILLIAMS, except the fact that he was born in Connecticut. If that be a sufficient reason why he should not be elected to a seat on our Supreme Bench, it is certainly just as good a reason why Judge STRONG should resign the seat upon the same Bench he now holds by virtue of a Democratic majority. If Judge WILLIAMS can't go up because he was born in Connecticut, then bring Judge STRONG down, for the same reason equally applies to him.

We should like to know what is wrong in being born in Connecticut? Of course we know that Democrats class that State among the New England States, and designate all who were born there as Yankees; but is not Judge STRONG, who is a Democrat, as much a Yankee by being born in Connecticut, as Judge WILLIAMS, who is a Republican, is because he was born in the same State? But is the objection made because a man acquires a political bias from the politics of the State in which he was born? If so, the Democracy furnish the best of reasons why all Democrats should vote for Judge WILLIAMS—because Connecticut is at present under a Democratic administration, and according to Democratic argument Judge WILLIAMS's political inspiration should certainly be acceptable to the most exacting of Democrats.

The sum of this ridiculous objection to Judge WILLIAMS is this: Connecticut is a Democratic State to-day. Judges STRONG and WILLIAMS are both natives of Connecticut. Judge STRONG is acceptable to the Democracy because he is a Democrat, and Judge WILLIAMS is objectionable to the Democracy because he is a Republican, and has at all times been true in his loyalty to the Union.

CALIFORNIA AND MAINE.

Although there is really nothing in the result of either the California or Maine election that should encourage the Democrats, nevertheless they continue to draw consolation therefrom. California was carried not by any change in popular sentiment, but through the defection of thousands of Republicans who deemed the defeat of a corrupt candidate more honorable and better policy than success with such a candidate. A judicial election is to take place in the State shortly, and we venture to say that the triumph of the Democrats will be short lived. In Maine, where the Democrats dare not hope for success, it was immaterial whether the Republican Governor was elected by fifteen or thirty thousand. So long as the State was overwhelmingly safe there was no motive for making a great effort. Notwithstanding the Democrats had the advantage of the issue growing out of the fact that a Republican Legislature passed a Prohibitory Liquor Law, their vote shows a gain of only about one thousand, and the Republican majority is over thirteen thousand. There is nothing to show that public sentiment in either California or Maine has changed a particle concerning national questions, and there is nothing in the result in either State that entitles the Democrats to feel encouraged or that should give Republicans the slightest alarm. In view of the tendency, after so many years of excitement and success, to apathy, we could wish that the Republicans might be alarmed somewhat. We are not so certain that the claim put up by the Democrats to gains in these two States is the best thing that could happen, for if anything were needed to awaken Republicans everywhere to timely and proper effort, it is precisely this.

AGREED.

The World and the Tribune are not apt to be very harmonious in their opinions on political subjects. Any case of agreement that may by stress of circumstances be brought about is worthy of notice as a curiosity, if nothing more. The Tribune lately gave an argument against the Amnesty Proclamation. The World indulges itself in a hit at the argument, the purpose of which, according to the parties, is the same, that is, as the World expresses it "to prove that the President's new Amnesty Proclamation does not remove the disabilities imposed by Congress.

We are not concerned with the logical tilt of the champions, nor are we called to decide which displays the most grace, skill and efficiency in his bearing. Our concern is with the matter about which the contest arose. This, as stated above, is, the practical effect of the Proclamation on the disabilities of the rebels. Here the parties are agreed. After the World has, to its own satisfaction, demolished the argument of the Tribune, it thus expresses its accord in its conclusions:

"Having thus exposed the fallacies of the Tribune's reasoning, we are constrained, on quite other grounds, to indorse the substantial correctness of the opinion which its false reasoning is brought to support. Practically, the new Amnesty Proclamation will afford no relief to persons deprived of the elective franchise."

New School House.

Thanks to the very generous Board of Directors of Liberty township, the people of Spring Hill have at least secured a good school building. The house, which is a neat frame thirty by forty feet, was built by Lewis Fleming, an old resident of this place. The work is well done, and we think will compare with, if not surpass, any school building in the county outside of the city limits. The ceiling is fourteen feet high, and ample means for thorough ventilation are secured. The surface of the wall in the rear end of the building is neatly lined, seven feet high, and painted for a class black-board. The outside painting is a light drab, done by W. H. H. Chester, 107 Fourth street, Pittsburgh. The furniture, which we think as good and as cheap as can be produced in any eastern establishment, was supplied by the firm of T. B. Young & Co., 38 and 40 Smithfield street. The lot, consisting of one and one-half acre, is beautifully situated on the new road which is now being opened from this place to Wilkinsburg. Altogether, we most heartily congratulate the Board on their taste in the selection of a site, and on their architectural skill in the construction of the building. Continue, gentlemen, to put forth such efforts for the little ones, and the rising generation will not only rise up and call you blessed, but your labors in the glorious cause will be abundantly rewarded above. The Board at present consists of Joseph Dilworth, President; Thos. Aiken, Secretary; Dr. A. G. Gross, Captain C. W. Batchelor, R. B. Phillips and E. Bruce.

The Maine Election—No Democratic Comfort.

The Augusta dispatch to the Boston Advertiser giving the returns of the Maine election says:

"The sole cause of loss to the Republicans is the liquor law and the constabulary law, passed by the last Legislature. Many Republicans were entirely apathetic as to the result, and not a few voted directly with the Democrats on the liquor issue. The national administration can derive no comfort from the gains of the Democracy, for the merits of Andrew Johnson were not really an issue."

The Boston Post's dispatch admits that "the ale and cider law of last year has undoubtedly caused much loss to the Republicans."

GEN. COOK, Secretary of Legation, died at Santiago on the 6th of August. His disease was contracted in the prison pens of the South, he having been captured in Gen. Kilpatrick's famous raid on Richmond. He fought side by side with Col. Dahlgren, who was killed by the rebels a few hours before his capture. After his release he was made Brevet Brigadier General, and appointed to the position which he held at the time of his death.

HEALTH OF HON. THADDEUS STEVENS.—The Lancaster Express says: The friends of Old Commoner throughout the State and country will be pleased to hear that his health has much improved recently, and that he is now better than for some time past. He will pay a visit to his iron works in Franklin county, in the course of a few days.

A TELEGRAM was sent from Richmond to the effect that the mercantile community was in an insolvent condition, and that the applications in the Court of Bankruptcy were numerous. The Presidents of the National Banks have pronounced the report false, and assert that no failures have taken place. Good for Richmond!

Abuse of Public Property.

Among the many mean, vicious and wicked habits to which the youth, and perhaps many of the adults of our country are addicted, that of mutilating and defacing public property is not the least contemptible. Go to almost any of the school houses in our rural districts, and the marred walls, doors and furniture will most emphatically attest the truth of this remark. You will there meet with pencilings too vulgar and carvings too obscene for the hand of a barbarian; this, too, in the face of the innocent children who daily congregate there for the purpose of receiving that instruction which is to fit them for usefulness in the varied active duties of life. Most certainly the best instructions of the best teacher in such an obnoxious locality will fail to accomplish much, if any, good; and just as certainly will those now innocent children be schooled and qualified for an indulgence in the like, or may be, more detestable crimes. But to be more specific in our references: Let any one who has the time, or who feels disposed to do so, stop off at the new station house at Shady Side, on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, enter the door of the neat little building, erected there by the Company, only last year, and if he is not disgusted with appearances, his taste, to say the least, cannot be very refined. When we first saw this building after its erection, it seemed to us a very model of neatness, and we felt disposed to congratulate the good people there on their success in securing so nice a stopping place, but now the walls, then so white and clean, are scribbled over and defaced as high as the hands of the perpetrators of the base act could reach without securing a ladder, which the thoughtless company failed to do. Yet, the people of Shady Side are noted for their good breeding, and we cannot for a moment suppose that the outrage, for such it is, was committed by the residents of the place. We have only chosen this station because it is new, and affords a striking example in illustration of our point. Is it not time then that the voice of condemnation was loudly, sternly raised against such barbarous conduct? Surely, if we do not wish to have the minds and hearts of our little children vitiated and corrupted, we must protect them from such contaminating, such debasing influences. Let every pupil, then, who dares to violate the sanctity of the school-room, be severely chastised; and railroad and other companies fine all persons who commit such depredations on any of their works, and the evil will soon cease. CITIZEN.

The Return of Ristori.

Mme. Ristori, it is announced, will arrive in New York this week, and begin her new series of representations on the 16th, at the French Theater, in "Myrrha." The return of this lady after having made a couple hundred thousand dollars here, looks more like the cool operation of a greedy money gatherer than anything understood to belong to the highest type of genius. We cannot think, if she counts on success at all corresponding to that of last year, she has calculated well. The thing savors hugely of the avariciousness of Grau, the manager, than whom few have less claims on the good feeling and patronage of the public. Ristori last year came and went the right time; and her second coming, we predict, will not prove an extraordinary success. There are some things that men and women will do at almost any cost, especially when popular furor has elected them to be the very things to do—and paying three to five dollars a night to hear Ristori in a language not one in five hundred understands, is one of those things. Repitition seldom succeeds. Curiosity is soon satisfied. Appreciation reduces the numbers speedily; and it will be on appreciation that Ristori must now mainly rely—and that, too, after the idea has gained possession of the public mind that, great as she unquestionably is, it is barely possible that the clap-trap of a manager who is greater still has had much to do in creating the popular estimate; and that, after all, she is only comparatively great, and that others there are who afford quite as much satisfaction, considering the more reasonable rate.

IT will be some eighteen months before the English Reform measure comes into actual operation. The new and enlarged boundaries of the boroughs have to be ascertained. What this work is can be judged by the list of commissioners, thirty-six in number, an engineer officer and a lawyer to each district. The commission will require from six to eight months to do their work. They will then report to Parliament. Parliament will approve or vary their report, and then legislate on it. When it becomes law a dissolution of Parliament will take place and the new reformed House of Commons can hardly reassemble before February, 1869. By that time we shall have seen strange events in Europe and perhaps in America.

OHIO NEWS.

Some colored young ladies of Cincinnati have organized a glee club, and the Gazette says have given several very pleasant entertainments.

The Bellfontaine Republican says it is estimated that there will not be over a half crop of corn in that county. Some put it at one-third of a crop.

The Mahoning Register says sixteen new store rooms are in process of erection in Youngstown. The Register says: "If there is any other town of six thousand inhabitants in Ohio that can make a better show of growth than this, let the figures be produced."

The buildings at the Fair Grounds near Newark, were fired Sunday night, and thirty-six cattle stalls were destroyed. The fire was the work of an incendiary, and will fall heavily on the society. For some time past the locks to the gates and buildings have been broken off, and other damage done, and the officers of the society are determined to ferret out the guilty parties and bring them to justice.

Nine hundred and eighty emigrants arrived in Columbus last week. Out of this number two hundred and twenty-nine propose to settle in Ohio, two hundred and thirty-three in Missouri, two hundred and six in Indiana, ninety-one in Wisconsin, eighty-one in Illinois, seventy-eight in Kentucky, thirty-three in Minnesota, and twenty-nine in Tennessee.

On Saturday evening two hundred entries had been made for the Franklin County Fair, and it was believed that five hundred entries would be made before the commencement of the Fair, which took place yesterday, the 11th instant.

In relation to the cattle sales in London, Madison county, last week, the Union says: Tuesday was a repetition of August sales'-day for drouth, dust and heat and full attendance of people. In offerings of stock cattle, however, there was a falling off of fully one-half in numbers, while in prices five cents was about the figures for the best stock cattle. But few poor ones offered and no sales at any price. The public sales comprised: 8 cows with calves at side; 56 yearling steers; 162 two year olds; 8 three year olds and 1 yoke of oxen. Total—235 head for $11,201 50. The best prices were a cow and calf at $75, and a yoke of oxen, weight, 3,400 pounds, $200.

The first instalment of gold, from the mines at Belleville, Richland county, Ohio, has arrived in Cincinnati. There was about a quarter of a pound of pure dust, worth something more than one hundred dollars.

The Trades' Unions of Cincinnati, having received a satisfactory letter from General Sam. Carey, have nominated him for Congress in the vacant (Second) Ohio District. It is probable that the Democrats will follow suit.

Last Monday night the residence of a wealthy farmer named Tanner, at Chester, Geauga county, was entered and robbed of $1,700, which was in a chest in an upper room. Detective Michael Gallagher, of Cleveland, was employed to work up the case, assisted by Sheriff Lamson, of Geauga county. Mr. Tanner suspected that the guilty parties were four mechanics, who were in his employ, building a brick house. Their names were Vail, McDonald, Gleason and Burdett, and their homes were at Chester. These men were arrested on Thursday last, and lodged in jail at Chardon. The stolen money was found in their possession.

Mr. F. P. Upp, a grocery keeper of Caledonia, Marion county, committed suicide on the morning of the 1st inst., by taking two ounces of laudanum. Mr. Upp was a cripple from wounds received in the Union army, and was trying to make an honest living by keeping a saloon in Caledonia. On the evening previous to his melancholy death, his house had been stoned by some evil disposed persons, and the supposition is that he took the poison while laboring under mental depression caused by the abuse of himself and his property.

A man was killed at Clyde on Saturday, by an engine on the Sandusky, Dayton and Cincinnati railroad. About three-fourths of his body was thrown over the telegraph wires.

A young man named Holland was shot through the heart, in Utopia, Clermont county, one night last week, by a young man named Ahrenfeldt. There was an old grudge between them, and meeting in a saloon, they soon got into a quarrel, which ended as above. The murderer escaped.

The rolling mill at Steubenville will soon resume work. When it is in full blast it gives permanent employment to about four hundred and fifty laborers and mechanics of all classes, and disburses to them on each pay day an amount of money so large that its stoppage is sensibly felt throughout the city. For some time past the Mill Company has been actively engaged repairing their machinery, works and buildings, and in the meantime most of their hands were idle.

The dwelling of Mr. C. B. Templeton, at Bloomfield Station, on the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati railroad, some eighteen miles from Steubenville, was broken into on Sabbath afternoon, while Mr. T. and family were at church. The robber succeeded in pilfering the house and escaped with clothing, jewelry, and a purse containing some money, and everything of value he could lay his hands on.

PERSONAL.

—General Custer is now on trial at Fort Leavenworth for leaving his command without permission. He says in defense that when he returned to Fort Wallace from his midsummer campaign against the Indians he heard that the cholera was raging at Fort Harker, and as his wife had been left there before he started on his campaign he was anxious for her safety, and hurried to Fort Harker regardless of his military duties.

—Rev. Newman Hall, of London, who arrived at Boston on Wednesday last, has gone to Niagara and Chicago, but will return to Boston in a few days. He will remain in the United States only a few weeks. Mr. Hall is the author of the well known tract, "Come to Jesus," and is the pastor of the famous Surrey Chapel, London.

—The Sultan's first railway journey in his own dominions was made a great occasion. His suite numbered seven hundred, and the cars were elaborately decorated.

TO IRON MEN.

WANTED—A PARTNER ACQUAINTED WITH THE IRON BUSINESS, having capital, to join in an enterprise of making Iron in Western Pennsylvania, on the Allegheny river, where there is plenty of very superior ore (True Spathic) already developed in part, a superior bed of best Coking Coal, some five feet in thickness, with a substantial Iron Railroad, cars, &c., running to the river. Only requiring a Smelting Furnace to make it the best paying interest in the State. For further information address, or call on,

NO. 23 MILK STREET,
TThs Boston, Mass.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

A few avaricious and unprincipled Flour Dealers in and around Pittsburgh, are now purchasing second-hand sacks, with our brand upon them, filling them with an inferior quality, and selling it as our Flour. Finding it difficult to procure the quantity of second-hand sacks, they are trying to get the sack maker here to make and print a lot for them.

To prevent this fraud, we are now pasting our sacks, and sealing them with a printed label, with name of firm and date of manufacture.

As we keep a register of the Flour made each day, and the kind of Wheat ground, we are at all times enabled to know the quality of Flour made.

Look Out for Short Weights.

Some of the dealers who are filling the sacks, are putting up short weights, in some cases equal to twenty pounds per barrel, making fully one dollar per barrel loss to consumer.

A REWARD OF $50

Will be paid for information that will lead to the detection and conviction of any person engaged in this fraudulent business.

THE BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' GRAND Presentation Enterprise.

THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED

WILL POSITIVELY DISTRIBUTE THE PRIZES AT THE

THIRD GRAND CONCERT

THAT WILL TAKE PLACE AT

IRVING HALL,

NEW YORK,

Tuesday, Sept. 24th, 1867.

BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' SECOND GRAND CONCERT was given at Irving Hall, August 24th. It was a grand success. The large hall was filled with the most respectable citizens of New York. The Committee that was appointed at the first Concert, announced to the audience that they would distribute the prizes at the next Concert, which will take place at Irving Hall, on the 24th of September, 1867.

When the Committee made this announcement, the audience gave immense applause. They were pleased to know that the prizes would be distributed at the next Concert on the 24th.

This Grand Distribution of Prizes will be conducted on the

MUTUAL BENEFIT PRINCIPLE.

A PRO RATA DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS TO TICKET HOLDERS,

CAPITAL, - $1,287,148.

TICKETS ONE DOLLAR EACH,

And limited to One Million Two Hundred and Eighty-seven Thousand One Hundred and Forty-Eight.

THE FAIREST AND MOST IMPARTIAL PLAN OF PRESENTATION YET OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

A Prize with Every Ticket.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall return such a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket-purchasers than any yet presented; and which being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate and business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.

To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets, and the registering the same, to Clark, Webster & Co., Bankers and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, New York, who will keep the records in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of presents.

A reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most skeptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate in the enterprise; and the Commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers, will, they hope, prove a sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with the scheme will be conducted, and the interests of ticket-holders will be most strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the desire of the Managers to conduct every transaction for the mutual benefit of whoever shall purchase a ticket, and scrupulously avoid any and everything which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.

on the 27th day of August, 1867. The business will be continued under the same name and style, by the remaining partners, who alone have authority to settle the business of the old firm.

P. WEISENBERGER & CO.

DISSOLUTION.

The firm of ANDERSON & MEYER, Merchant Tailors, heretofore doing business at No. 73 Smithfield street, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. HENRY MEYER, of the late firm, is alone authorized to collect the assets of the late firm, and will pay the debts thereof at the old place. All indebted to the late firm are requested to make immediate payment.

HENRY MEYER,
FREDERICK ANDERSON.

Pittsburgh, August 21st, 1867.

DISSOLUTION—THE PARTNERSHIP existing under the style of J. McALPIN & CO., was dissolved on the 1st inst., by mutual consent, W. G. HARRISON retiring. The business will be settled by J. McALPIN, at No. 52 Wayne street.

J. McALPIN,
WM. G. HARRISON.

BANKRUPTCY.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE THAT on the 2d day of September, A. D. 1867, a pluries warrant in Bankruptcy was issued against the

ESTATE OF ELMOR THOMPSON,

Of the City of Pittsburgh, in the County of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, who has been adjudged a bankrupt on his own petition, that the payment of any debts and delivery of any property belonging to said bankrupt, to him, or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him are forbidden by law; that a meeting of the creditors of said bankrupt to prove their debts, and to choose one or more assignees of his estate, will be held at a Court of Bankruptcy, to be holden at No. 93 DIAMOND STREET, in the city of Pittsburgh, before SAMUEL HARPER, Register, on the 26th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1867, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

THOMAS A. ROWLEY,
U. S. Marshal.

WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, SS: At Pittsburgh, the 3d day of September, A. D. 1867. The undersigned hereby gives notice of his appointment as Assignee of CALEB SAUDERS, of Pittsburgh, in the county of Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, within said district, who has been adjudged a Bankrupt upon his own petition, by the District Court of said District.

HOW LONG!

How long will sufferers from Chronic Diseases fail to avail themselves of the extraordinary virtues of

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

Until this most excellent medicine has been tried all has not been done that could be.

Hark! ye sufferers from the scourge of the present generation, Dyspepsia, have you sought relief in

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

No we know you have not, or you would not look so woe-begone and miserable.

How long, oh ye that are suffering from the horrors of Scrofula will ye fail to make use of

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS,

An almost infallible remedy for this disease in any of its horrible forms. The sick and the afflicted are guilty of self-murder so long as they do not use

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

We say all this with the conviction strong upon us that half the truth has not been told.

THE MOUNT AUBURN Young Ladies' Institute,

Situated on beautiful eminence north of the City of Cincinnati, from which it derives its name, has just closed its Twenty-second Session.

The past year has been one of unusual prosperity, there having been in attendance two hundred and thirty-five young ladies, gathered from all parts of the United States. No case of sickness requiring a physician has occurred.

Its healthful location, and its country position, while yet so near the city, gives it advantages over either city or country schools.

Its character as a first rate Seminary of Learning is too well known to need further comments.

The LIBRARY, CABINET AND APPARATUS, already very extensive, are receiving yearly additions.

WIT AND WISDOM.

Tenderness is the repose of passion.

Proud characters love those to whom they do a service.

Those who always love have not the leisure to complain and to be unhappy.

We should do everything to let good people have their will.

The punishment of those who have always loved women too much, is to love them always.

"None but the brave deserve the fair," No, and none but the brave can live with some of them.

Queer. Does a Canadian go barefoot when he has snow shoes?

"I'm going to raise your rent," said a landlord to his tenant. "Thank you," replied the tenant, "for I'm blessed if I can raise it myself."

Ideas, says Voltaire, are like beards—men get them when they grow up, woman never have any.

A father said to his wife, when his dissipated boy had come home: "Wife kill the prodigal, the calf's returned.

Though a wavelet be a little wave, and a flowret a little flower, yet a bullet is not a little bull, nor a hamlet a little ham.

A wicked wretch was asked why he married so little a wife? "Why," said he, "the best way among all evils is to choose the least."

"I have the best wife in the world," said a long suffering husband; "she always strikes me with the soft end of the broom."

An Irishman applying for relief being told to work for his living, replied, "If I had all the work in the world, I could'nt do it."

"Am I not a little pale?" inquired a lady was short and corpulent, of a crusty old bachelor. "You look more like a big tub" was the blunt reply.

Quilp thinks it rather remarkable that while several thousand feet are required to make one rood, a single foot properly applied, is often sufficient to make one civil.

What is the difference between a rifleman who shoots wide of the target, and a husband who blackens his wife's eyes? The one misses his mark and the other marks his missis.

It won't do to be so devoted to a tender hearted wife as to comply with her request when she asks you—"Now tumble over the cradle and break your neck, my dear, won't you?"

A gentleman met another in the street who was ill of consumption, and acosted him thus: "Ah! my friend, you walk slowly." "Yes," replied the man, "but I am going fast."

Men make their wills, but wives
Escape a work so sad;
Why should they make what all their lives
The gentle dames have had?

Theodore Parker aptly compared some who grew suddenly rich to cabbages growing in a bed. They smother the violets, but are after all nothing but cabbage heads.

"Charlie, my dear," said a loving mother to a hopeful son, just budded into breeches, "Charlie, my dear, come here and get some candy." I guess I won't mind it now mother," replied Charlie, "I've got in some tabacco"

By means of chastity the soul breathes a pure air in foulest places; by means of continency it is srong in whatever state the body may be. The soul is regal through its empire over the senses, beautiful by its light and its peace.

At a Fourth of July celebration in Marion county, Ill., a young lady offered the following toast: "The young men of America—their arms our support, our arms their reward; fall in, fall in."

The following is the true copy of a sign upon an academy for teaching in one of the far western states: "Freeman and Huggs school teachers. Freeman teaches the boys, and Huggs the girls."

"How came such a greasy mess in the the oven?" said a fidgety old spinster to her maid of all work. "Why," replied the girl, the candles fell into the water, and I put them in the oven to dry."

"You would be pretty, indeed," said a gentleman, patronizingly, to a young lady, "if your eyes were only a little larger." "My eyes may be small, sir, but such people as you don't fill them."

"Look here, boy," said a nervous gentleman to an urchin who was munching candy at a lecture, "you are annoying me very much." "No, I ain't neither," said the urchin, I,m a gnawing this 'ere candy."

A man, now member of Congress, being clerk in a western country store, once on a time, was asked by a woman if he had any "ladies' hose." "Yes," said he, and ran to the warehouse, and brought her a small-sized hoe!

"Shall women have votes?" asked a stump speaker. "Certainly," repled a strong minded woman in the audience. "Is woman made only to sew on buttons? And, if she is, it is against the law of nature to turn away the needle from the poll."

An exchange, in speaking of the magical strains of a hand-organ, says: "When he played Old Dog Tray, we noticed eleven pups sitting infront of the machine on their haunches, brushing away the tears from their eyes with their fore paws."

A stry contriband from down South was lately inspecting a horse power in operation, when he broke out thus: "Mister, I have seen heaps of thing in my life, but I never saw anything whar a horse could do his own work and ride hisself too."

A young lady asked a gentleman the meaning of the the word "surrogate," and he explained it to her as "a gate through which parties go to get married." "Then I imagine," said the lady, "that it is a corruption of the word sorrow gate." "You are right," said he, "as woman is an abbreviation of woe to man."

A veritable story is told of a bright little girl who, attending Sunday school for the first time was asked "who went into the lions den?" The little one appeared puzzled and not answering, the teacher commenced spelling to awaken the child's recollection—"D-a-n." "I can tell now," exclaimed the three year old, all smiles, "It was Dan Rice!"

Intensity and concentration of thought often effect what neither genius nor intuition can do, as the strokes of the feeble but long repeating mattock dig deeper than the thunderbolt. Give us time, say the water-drops, and we will bore a hole through your thickest stratum of granite. Give us time, say the coral insects, and we will build up another Australasia.—Horace Mann.

A lady says the first time she was kissed she felt like a tub of roses swimming in honey, cologne, nutmegs and cranberries. She felt also as if something was running through her nerves on feet of diamonds, escorted by several little cupids in chariots drawn by angels, shaded by honey-suckles, and the whole spread with melted rainbows.

SORROW AND JOY.

And what is sorrow? 'Tis a boundless sea.
And what is joy?
A little pearl in the deep ocean's bed;
I sought it—found it—held it o'er my head,
And, to my soul's annoy,
It fell into the ocean's depth again,
And now I look and long for it in vain.

A gentleman was describing to Douglass Jerrold the story of his courtship and marriage—how his wife had been brought up in a convent, and was on the point of taking the vial, when his presence burst upon her enraptured sight, and she accepted him as her husband. Jerrold listened to the end of the story, and then quietly remarked, "Ah! she evidently thought you better than nun."

They have a patriarch in Taunton, who says that he once raised a flock of wild ducks from a pond, when he took aim at them with his gun and fired. They flew away with much clamor, and surprised to find that none of them dropped he examined the field of battle. He picked up four bushels of legs. There was a touch of pathos in the old man's voice as he added, "I fired too low."

J. B. was a stingy old creature, eager for money, but he was a zealous member of the church, and ostentatious in his religious exercises. "John," said Catherine to her brother, "what could have made that stingy old wretch a Christian?" "I can tell you," said John, "he has read that the streets of the new Jerusalem are paved with gold, and he is determined to get there."

FOR SALE,
A VALUABLE LOT,
IN EAST LIBERTY,
Fronting seventy feet on Beitler street, and running through to the Pennsylvania Railroad, on which it fronts two hundred and sixteen feet, containing in all about three-quarters of an acre. On the lot is erected two large slaughter houses, with all the necessary fixtures for butchering purposes; a Carpenter Shop and large Stables. It is near the center of East Liberty, convenient to the stations of the steam and horse Railways, and its long front on Pennsylvania Railroad affords excellent facilities for lumber or coal yards. Inquire of S. B. W. GILL, No. 98 Fifth street, or T. W. LINDSEY, on the premises.

VALUABLE
COAL LAND & FRUIT FARM FOR SALE.
Will be held at private sale, on liberal terms, until October 7th, 1867, the following Real Estate in Baldwin township. First: The Fruit Farm on which the subscriber, John F. Bennett, now resides, containing 80 acres, on which are upwards of 40,000 Fruit Trees and Grape Vines, planted during the last fifteen years, and now in the highest condition and full bearing. This Fruit Farm is not excelled by any of its size in the State, and is an opportunity rarely offered. Second: 320 Acres of Coal, underlying the above and other adjoining lands, with convenient openings on Saw Mill Run, in one or two lots, as may be desired. The surveyed line of the proposed Monongahela Valley RR. passes along the base outcrop of this Coal. Third: 70 Acres of Garden Land on Saw Mill Run, laid out in lots as per plans. This property is on the surveyed line of the proposed Monongahela Valley Railroad.
The whole of the above Properties are within five miles of the Pittsburgh Court House.
If the above property be not previously disposed of, it will be offered at Public Auction to the highest bidder, on MONDAY, October 7th, 1867, at 10 o'clock, at the Court House.
For terms and further particulars inquire at 143 Fourth street, of H. BURGWIN, or on the premises of JOHN F. BENNETT.

BRICK MACHINE,
MANUFACTURED BY THE
PITTSBURGH BRICK MACHINE
AND
BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.
This Machine takes the clay direct from the bank, (without the preparation, by soaking, necessary for "soft mud" machines), and tempers it thoroughly, pressing, in steel moulds, brick stiff enough to be packed up eight high in the yard as made. For cutting with the trowel, bearing hard usage, and making a strong, true wall, there are no better brick known. The cost of making them by this machine is from 95 cents to $1 10 per 1,000, according to the rates of wages. This we guarantee. The machine is built entirely of iron and steel; and in the best style for strength and permanent use in working clay. Apply for circulars, giving full information, at the office,

CITY MATTERS.

THE LABOR REFORM CONVENTION.

The Initiatory Steps for Organization in Allegheny County.

A FULL TICKET NOMINATED.

Speeches, Resolutions, &c., &c.

On Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock, the delegates elected on the previous Saturday, in the several election districts, for the purpose of representing the working classes in the formation of a Labor Reform Party, met in convention in the District Court room, with a view to nominating a full county ticket in opposition to the tickets now before the people.

A temporary organization was effected by calling Mr. Wm. S. Matthews of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, to the chair. Mr. W. J. Core, of Birmingham, was chosen Vice President, and Messrs. David Lowry and T. A. Armstrong, Secretaries.

The following named gentlemen were appointed a Committee on Permanent Organization: Messrs. David Lowry, J. D. Evans, B. A. McGinty, James Davis, Jos. Tatum, John Creegan, George Thompson, Joseph Chiverton, Thomas Hunter, Thomas Henderson, D. C. Crawford, J. S. Hillman.

A Committee of Seven was appointed on Credentials, as follows: Messrs. David Lowry, J. B. Evans, W. J. Core, B. F. Morgan, W. H. H. Frenger and S. Hefflick.

In the absence of the Committees, it was suggested that the Convention hear some speeches.

REMARKS OF MR. KREPPS.

Mr. J. W. Krepps, of East Birmingham, was first called upon, and responded in a brief speech. He alluded to the proud position attained by the working classes in Allegheny county, and to the important results which were to follow the action of this convention. He stated that if good candidates were nominated the ticket would undoubtedly be elected throughout. For State Senate the two political parties had nominated "scabs"—men who were opposed to trades organizations and trades unions, and who were opposed to paying and refused to pay trades union prices in their offices. If a good man was nominated for State Senate, no working man in the county would dare to cast his vote for either Russell Errett or James P. Barr. This was the first county in the State or United States to inaugurate the National Labor party, as recommended by the great Labor Congress recently assembled in Chicago, and Allegheny county would have the honor of electing the first ticket. Other counties would soon wheel into line, and the National Labor party would soon become the successful party of the United States. [Applause.]

REMARKS OF MR. ALEXANDER.

Mr. W. W. Alexander, of Allegheny, was next called upon, and spoke at some length upon the general principles of the Labor party, and the happy results which were sure to follow its successful inauguration. He predicted an easy triumph in this county, if honest, capable and intelligent working men were placed in nomination.

AN EPISODE.

Mr. Joseph R. Oxley, a delegate from Allegheny, arose and inquired the object for which the Convention had assembled. He conceived that the purpose was to work and not to talk.

The Chairman remarked that, like all other conventions, it was necessary for this one to go through the preliminary business. In the absence of the committees it was proper to hear speeches. The business, however, for which the convention had assembled, was to nominate a ticket.

Mr. Oxley remarked that he was opposed to hatching things in committees, and thought that an organization might have been as satisfactorily effected directly on the floor of the convention.

Chairman—You should have made your objection before the Committee on Organization was appointed.

Mr. Oxley—It looks too much like following the lead of the old political—

Chairman—You are out of order. I am Chairman of this Convention, and I order you to take your seat!

Mr. Oxley "subsided," and the Convention applauded.

AN EDITOR SPEAKS.

George Baber, Esq., editor of the Evening Advocate, by a unanimous vote of the house was called upon for a speech, and responded in a brief but vigorous and graceful address. He thought, with Mr. Oxley, that the present was hardly the time for speech-making, since the Convention had not organized and the resolutions had not been reported. The resolutions should form the texts of the speeches. But he might say that he regarded the assembling of this Convention as the most auspicious event in the history of the county. The sentiments which would go forth from it would be responded to all over the country; other counties would follow the example, and the great Labor party would start out on its glorious march to victory. This Convention was but the embodiment of the feeling which had existed in this community for fifty years, and which was destined to culminate in the disenthralment of the laboring classes throughout the continent. All other things sink into insignificance when compared with this auspicious movement. Nominate a good ticket, and so sure as the sun is in the heavens the banner of the Labor party of Allegheny county will float in triumph on the second Tuesday of October next.

The speaker retired amidst hearty applause.

STRENGTH OF THE CONVENTION.

Mr. Lowry, on behalf of the Committee on Credentials, made a report, from which it appeared that fifty-one out of the eighty-four districts in the county were represented. The wards and boroughs were quite fully represented, but in most of the townships no elections had been held.

As a matter of general interest to politicians, we append below a list of the delegates:

PITTSBURGH.

First Ward—Ed. Sullivan, Frank Snyder.
Second Ward—Joseph O'Hanlon, T. M. Black.
Third Ward—Christ. Bradford, Daniel Conner.
Fourth Ward—Samuel Hefflick, Joseph Tatem.

McClure—Joseph Chiverton, Joseph Coleman.
Oakland—Daniel Coyle, John E. Jones.
Baldwin—S. S. Hillman, Wm. Faulkner.
Union—Abraham Winters, James Welsh.
Scott—Wm. Andrew, John L. Davis.
Shaler—Joseph McKee, M. V. B. Saladie.
Pitt—George Evans, Alonzo Early.
Elizabeth—Sames Smith, J. L. McPheeters.
Mifflin—W. J. Kretts, M. Smith.
Fawn—L. T. Armstrong, M. G. Kelly.
Peebles—Charles H. Kennedy, J. R. Jackson.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following choice of officers:

President—E. G. Frethy, Lawrenceville.
Vice President—Daniel Coyle, Oakland.
Secretaries—Rinaldo S. King, Allegheny, and David Lowry, Pittsburgh.

The report was accepted and the officers elect took their seats.

Mr. Frethy, on taking the Chair, thanked the Convention for the honor conferred, and announced that he was ready for any business which might be offered.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

On motion the Chair appointed the following named gentlemen as a Committee to draft a platform: D. A. McGinty, David Lowry, R. S. King, William Marshall, George Thomson, R. S. Williams, and Wm. S. Matthews.

NOMINATION FOR STATE SENATE.

The convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for State Senate, when the names of Messrs. Andrew Burtt, W. W. Alexander, Wm. S. Matthews and J. W. Krepps were submitted.

Messrs. Krepps, Matthews and Alexander severally withdrew their names, in favor of Mr. Burtt who was then nominated by acclamation.

The convention then took a recess until one o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention re-assembled at the hour designated, and was called to order by the Chairman, who announced the nominations for Assembly next in order.

The following names were then suggested:

J. W. Krepps, Birmingham.
Dayiel Coyle, Oakland.
James McKain, Mt. Washington.
W. W. Alexander, Allegheny.
Thomas A. Armstrong, Allegheny.
J. S. Hillman, Baldwin.
Hugh Woods, Tarentum.
Andrew Brown, Elizabeth.
A. G. Thoburn, Birmingham.
Robert Campbell, McClure.
Alex. Miller, Birmingham.
Wm. F. Bradbury, McKeesport.
Wm. L. Matthews, Allegheny.
Augustus Steiner, Wilkinsburg.

Mr. John Flannigan took exceptions to one name on the ticket—the individual being opposed to the interests of the laboring classes, and an "oppressor" of coal diggers. He thought the status of the candidates should be known before the vote was taken.

It was moved to proceed to vote, and that the six gentlemen receiving the highest vote be declared the nominees.

A delegate moved to amend by requiring each candidate to have a majority of the convention.

A SNARL.

Mr. Matthews declared that the amendment was not in order, as it destroyed the purpose of the original resolution.

The Chairman ruled the amendment in order.

Mr. Matthews appealed from the decision of the chair, and the question being taken, it was decided that the chair had been sustained.

A division was called for, and Mr. Matthews insisted that the delegates should be seated. It was stated that there were not seats enough, when a delegate suggested that those who had no seats might squat.

Another motion was now adopted to proceed to an informal ballot, in order to get the convention out of the snarl, which was likely to consume a great deal of time.

THE STATUS OF THE CANDIDATES—IMPENDING DANGER.

S. L. Peden, of Wilkins' township, stated that he had been instructed to support no man for nomination, who was not a working man. He knew very few of the nominees for Assembly, and could not tell whether they worked for a living or not. He thought they should have the record or history of each candidate, so that they would know what kind of men they were voting for. (Applause.)

It was then determined to call over the list, and the friends of the respective candidates were expected to vouch for them as sound on the labor question.

The names of Messrs. Krepps and Coyle elicited no remark, but when Mr. McKain's name was called,

Mr. Price arose and stated that, in 1859 Mr. McKain was engaged in the coal business, and strenuously opposed the placing of scales at his works. He also turned away Trades' Union men and employed "black sheep" in their places. The speaker, however, was particular to state that "he had not been acquainted with Mr. McKain's antecedents since that time."

A friend of Mr. McKain stated that he had been so good and kind to his workmen that he could not make any money, and broke up at his business.

It became now evident that if the character of the candidates was to be canvassed in this way, the convention would speedily resolve itself into partizan cliques; that those cliques would have one another by the ears, and that would be pulling at cross purposes.

Mr. Krepps, who seems to be an active leader, and possessed of a good degree of influence, foresaw the danger into which the Convention was drifting, and in a few words of warning depicted the interminable antagonisms and bickerings which would follow this "reading up of character." The policy of the new party was to make friends and not enemies—to promote love and brotherhood, not hatred and alienation. He moved that further inquiry into the character and standing of the candidates be indefinitely postponed.

The Convention gladly accepted this mode of escape from threatened rupture, and the motion was adopted unanimously.

AN INFORMAL BALLOT.

It was now resolved to proceed to an informal ballot, for Assemby, to indicate the choice of the Convention. The result was as follows:

J. W. Krepps	55	Andrew Brown	20
Daniel Coyle	23	A. G. Thoburn	8
James McKain	16	R. Campbell	8
W. W. Alexander	50	Alex. Miller	3
T. A. Armstrong	53	Wm. T. Bradbury	53
J. S. Hillman	61	W. S. Matthews	41
Hugh Woods	13	Augustus Steiner	10
Josephus Hippley	33

When the above vote was announced, Mr. Matthews moved that the Committe on Resolutions be called upon to report forthwith, which was agreed to.

THE PLATFORM.

R. A. McGinty, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, then read the report, as follows:

WHEREAS, The industrial classes are the creators of the real greatness and prosperity of the country, and, at the same time, are the chief bearers of the burthens of government, fighting its battles in times of war, and sharing the largest proportion of the taxation in times of both peace and war; and

WHEREAS, The rights and interests of the industrial classes have been seriously and grossly neglected in both National and State legislation, which neglect has been practiced in the interests of monopolies and of an oppressive monied aristocracy; and

WHEREAS, A vital necessity exists for a thorough reformation of the various abuses which for years past have characterized our State Legislature, in order that the rights and interests of the mechanic, the farmer, the artisan and the laborer, and also the honest capitalist, may no longer be subordinated to the schemes of corrupt politicians of the old political parties; and believing that experience has clearly taught us that the desired reformation cannot be entrusted to professional politicians of either of the said political parties; therefore,

Resolved, That the industrial classes of Allegheny county, without regard to former political opinions or associations, and speaking through their delegated representatives assembled in Convention, do declare:

First. That we hereby organize the Labor Reform party of Allegheny county, in harmony with the cause of Labor Reform throughout the United States, and that we will, as workingmen, support those, and those only, who will advocate the principles of Labor Reform, and use their influence in support of such laws as will secure to the laboring classes their just rights.

Second. We declare that we will spare neither time, labor nor expense in the effort to abolish the present infamous eviction act, commonly known as the "Tioga law," regarding it, as we do, as a blot upon the statute book of Pennsylvania.

Third. We declare that the unlimited field of iron and coal render the mining interests of Pennsylvania of the utmost importance, and deserving to be protected by legislative enactments; and inasmuch as our coal miners have been in many cases, defrauded of part of their earnings by the use of screens and unfair weights, we demand that a law be speedily enacted to compel their employers to pay them for full quantity of coal of every variety dug by them, in proportion to its market value.

Fourth. We declare that, inasmuch as the workingman depends upon his labor alone for the support of himself and family, and inasmuch as he contributes more directly than any others toward increasing the capital of his employer, his unpaid wages should, by law, be made a lien on the employer's property and thus become a preferred claim, so that the insolvency of his employer would not, as now, result in defrauding him of his hard-earned and just dues.

Fifth. We do declare that the present system of valuing property and occupations for the purpose of taxation, whereby the cheap homes and small incomes of the workingmen are valued far higher in proportion to their real worth than those of the rich, (thereby throwing the burden of taxation chiefly on the poor,) is, in the opinion of this Convention, an outrage that should be speedily redressed by appropriate legislation, it being still further the opinion of this Convention that there is nothing upon which taxation should bear more lightly than upon the humble home and meagre income of the laboring man.

Sixth. We declare that the flagrant violations of the ten hour law by the owners and lessees of cotton and other factories in Allegheny county warrant us in demanding an immediate official investigation of the same; and in the opinion of this convention, the spirit which animates employers in these violations of law is but the natural result of the teaching which places labor in the market only to regulate it by the rule of "supply and demand."

Seventh. We declare that while the industrial classes, native and foreign born, in Allegheny county, have no objection to ordinary free immigration of laborers to the United States from any country on the globe, yet they do oppose and hereby emphatically protest against all organized purchased importations secured by capitalists, and their agents, for the purpose of overstocking the labor market in any special locality, feeling as the workingmen do, that such importations are hostile to the rights and interests of home labor, and lead inevitably to pauperism and crime; and, while the industrial classes of Allegheny county demand a judicious tariff on imported merchandise for the protection of home manufactures, they demand, also, a judicious tariff per capita upon all purchased importations of labor, in order to protect home industry, the said tariff to be paid into the treasury of the county or State by the capitalists themselves who import purchased foreign laborers.

Eighth. We declare that the administration of Government should be marked by the strictest economy, in order that present taxation may be diminished as rapidly as possible, and all additional burdens upon the people averted.

Ninth. We declare for equal taxation according to wealth, and no favored classes. Every citizen should pay taxes on what he possesses, whether his possessions consist of lands, merchandise, houses, farms, factories, bonds or money on hand; and we declare also, that tariff duties should be reduced upon all articles of necessity, so that labor may be lightly taxed.

Tenth. We declare that, having in view the odious tyranny of the Pennsylvania Railroad monopoly, and regarding all monopolies as injurious to the major portion of the community, we are heartily in favor of the enactment of a free Railroad Law.

Eleventh. We declare that, as the present Homestead Law of Pennsylvania has become a "dead letter" on our statute books, by the compulsory signing away the privileges intended to be guaranteed by it, we are in favor of a Legislative act whereby the rights of families may be secured in the benefits of what is known as the "three hundred dollar law."

The report was hailed with applause, and unanimously adopted as a whole, amid loud applause.

THE ASSEMBLY TICKET.

The President was asked, what shall be done with the informal ballot?

Mr. Oxley moved that the six highest in the ballot be declared the nominees, which was agreed to.

The Secretaries announced the names of the lucky six, as follows:

J. W. Krepps,	J. S. Hillman,
T. A. Armstrong,	Wm. T. Bradbury,
W. W. Alexander,	W. S. Matthews.

The announcement was hailed with cheers.

NEWS FROM ABROAD.

The President here read a dispatch from Cincinnati, announcing that the Workingmen's Convention, then in session in that city, had nominated Samuel F. Carely for Congress, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Gen. Hays, the Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio. It was stated that Mr. Carey had satisfactorily answered the interrogatories of the Trades' Assembly, and the nomination was tendered him with great unanimity.

The announcement was vociferously applauded.

A CALL UPON MR. BURTT.

Prof. Andrew Burtt, the nominee for State Senate, was then called upon for a speech, and took the stand. There was one practice of the old parties which they would do well not to imitate—that is, "talking much and doing little." He had not sought the nomination, but did what he could to prevent it. Nevertheless he had been nominated by his friends, and felt gratified and thankful. He alluded to the fact that no legislation could be obtained in favor of right and justice, and everything would be had that money could purchase. He warned the convention against the wiles and machinations of the old party leaders, who now stood, whip in hand, ready to whip in all who attempted to bolt from their old political associates. Old associations should be discarded. Democracy and Republican should be henceforth held as dead issues, as they should go in, one and all, heart and hand for the great Labor party. (Applause, and cries of "we will," etc.) He thought there was "a prospect of success," but even if a strong vote was polled, and no practical results accomplished, the law-makers at Harrisburg would take a different view of the wants and requirements of the workingmen of Allegheny county, than they had done in years past.

A QUERY.

As Mr. Burtt was about concluding, Joseph Evans, a saloon keeper from the "South Side," asked, "How about the rat candidates for the State Senate?"

Mr. Burtt hesitated to respond, but finally stated that he knew Major Errett and Mr. Barr, personally, and knew them both to be perfect gentlemen. He had nothing to say against them personally. It had been said that they opposed paying the Union prices to printers, but he did not know the fact. If they had sought to oppress the laborer, and withhold from him a fair equivalent for his services, the friends of the laboring classes should not vote for either of them under any circumstances. [Applause.]

THE COUNTY OFFICES.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate for the several county offices, the ballot resulting as follows:

TREASURER.

Wm. T. McBride*	41	Thomas W. Wright	14
J. T. McKee	25

PROTHONOTARY.

J. R. Jackson	6	David Lowry*	46
W. H. Hammet	12	S. Lambert	8

B. T. Morgan	11	Thos Megraw	11

POOR DIRECTOR.

Jas. B. Stevens	11	Benj. White*	57
P. A. Rattigan	12

Before the vote was announced, it was moved that the candidate having the highest vote should be declared elected. Agreed to. [Those marked with a star (*) are the nominees.]

A resolution was adopted indorsing the Evening Advocate as the organ of the party. Also a resolution of thanks to the President and Secretaries.

A delegate moved that each candidate for Assembly be called on for a speech. Decided in the negative.

It was resolved to adjourn to meet on Saturday evening, September 21st, in front of Boder's Hall, to ratify the nominations.

The Convention then adjourned with three cheers for the Labor party.

Report of the Committee Appointed to Examine Dr. H. W. C. Tweddle's Process of Manufacturing Petroleum Oil.

In our notice yesterday morning of the report of the committee appointed to examine Dr. H. W. C. Tweddle's Process of Manufacturing Petroleum Oil, there was a typographical error, (which we hasten to correct,) in the third paragraph of the report. To read correctly it should have read as follows:

"About fifty barrels was introduced by 3:30 o'clock and at 7 o'clock P. M., or five hours time, 74 per cent. of refined oil was produced—and 22 per cent. of lubricating oil."

We repeat that we think this last proof of the superiority of Dr. Tweddle's process, over all others, ought to satisfy the most prejudiced individual of its importance and great value. The process can be seen any time at the "Eclipse Oil Refinery," Sharpsburg Bridge.

An Aged Man Made to Hear in Four Days.

I certify that I had been afflicted with a deafness and a constant disagreeable buzzing noise and sounds in my ear. When I applied to Dr. Aborn last Saturday I was so deaf that I could not hear a watch tick. After using his treatment for four days I find that I am relieved of noises and sounds, and can hear the ticking of a watch; I am seventy-four years of age.

JAMES SMITH,
Office of the Court.

NOTE.—Dr. Aborn will be professionally at his rooms, No. 134 Smithfield street, from nine A. M. to four P. M.

Sick and Afflicted.

The "Great Original Indian Herb Doctor" still holds forth at No. 194 Liberty street, in this city. The Doctor has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of diseases of all kinds, especially those of a chronic nature. His office is visited daily by large numbers of persons who have failed to get relief elsewhere; and we personally saw and conversed with a number of his patients who have been entirely cured in a few days, and others who are recovering very fast. The Doctor makes no pretensions to humbuggery of any kind, and will give you all needful information and advice in a highly intelligent professional and skillful manner. Call and see him.

THIS is to certify that my wife had been troubled with consumption and general debility a long time. I placed her under the treatment of the Herb Doctor and she is quite restored. It is no mystery to me now how you get such certificates as you publish.

JAMES T. KERR,
Government Contractor, Steubenville, O.

I HAVE been covered from head to foot with the scurvy for many years. The Herb Doctor has cured me.

R. LLOYD,

Are You Bilious?

Multitudes of both sexes will answer this question in the affirmative; for, next to disorders of the stomach, liver-complaints are perhaps the most prevalent of all internal diseases. Its usual symptoms are a yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes, especially near the inner corners, an uneasy or slightly painful sensation in the right side, pain between the shoulder blades, sick headache, lassitude, mental dullness, lack of appetite, and irregularity of the bowels. Whoever recognizes this diagnosis as applying to his own condition, may be quite certain that more bile exists in his blood and less passes through his bowels than is expedient for his health, and that his liver requires toning and regulating. One of the special uses of

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS

is to meet just such exigencies as this. Its tonic principle rouses the liver from its torpor, and its aperient element gently relieves the intestinal canal of the accretions consequent upon an insufficient supply of nature's cathartic, the bile.

Persons of bilious habit will find it the best safeguard against the attacks to which they are constitutionally predisposed, and should carefully avoid all the ordinary alcoholic stimulants.

DIED:

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, September 11, 1867.

The supply of money in our market for strictly first-class commercial paper based on actual transactions is ample, but so strict is the scrutiny of capitalists into the character of the makers of the paper that a contrary opinion very generally prevails. An uncertainty as to the future, and an almost universal feeling that prices of all commodities are tending downward checks to a great extent the starting of new enterprises. Moneyed men, therefore, confine themselves to short loans or seek investments in sound dividend paying stocks and bonds that may in an emergency be readily converted into cash.

—The day of fancy stocks is over, for a time at least, until recent sad experiences are in a measure forgotten.

—Quite an advance has taken place in the prices of our city bank stocks. The latest sales that have come under our notice are: Bank of Pittsburgh, 64½; Allegheny National, 57½; Merchants' and Manufacturers' National, 65, and Exchange National, 65½.

—Allegheny County 5-20 Bonds sold in Philadelphia lately at 75½. Pittsburgh City 5-20 Bonds are quoted at 71, bid.

—A sale of Western Pennsylvania Railroad Bonds, guaranteed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was lately made at 80.

—For Allegheny Valley Railroad 7-30 Bonds 80 is bid. The First Mortgage 7-30 Bonds sold, just before the July Coupon was taken off, at 93.

—Columbia and Triumph, of all the numerous family of oil companies once so popular in our city, alone appear on the surface. Sales of the former were made quite recently at $7. We learn that $7 50 is now freely bid. A good dividend is anticipated by many on October 1st. Triumph is held pretty firmly and no sales have transpired lately.

—Of the Philadelphia Oil Companies we note sales of Maple Shade at 94c; Cornplanter 31c; Ocean $3 94; McClintockville 27c; McElhenny 69c.

—Governments are strong and show an upward tendency. An advance in the old series as will be seen in the following report to Messrs. McVay & Co., was established to-day in the New York market:

U. S. 6s 1881	112
U. S. 5-20s, 1862	114
U. S. 5-20s, 1864	109
U. S. 5-20s, 1865, May and November	111
U. S. 5-20s, 1865, January and July	108
U. S. 10-40s	99
December Compounds, 1864	118
August 7-30s	107
June 7-30s	107
July 7-30s	107
Gold	144
U. S. 5-20s, 1867	108

—The quotations to Messrs. James T. Brady & Co., Bankers, do not materially differ from these.

—An unusually spiritless speculation has been reported in the railway and miscellaneous share list. The pervading disposition has been adverse to the current values, against which some rather free sales have been made, prices yielding accordingly, in the absence of a demand sufficiently confident and comprehensive to buoy up the speculative favorites. The noon report received at the stock rooms of S. S. Bryan shows some fair changes:

Michigan Southern	83
Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad	83
Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad	106
Erie Railroad	70
Chicago & Northwestern Railroad	46

—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Butler, held at its banking house July 13th, Mr. Edwin Lyon was elected cashier, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. I. J. Cummings.

—S. S. Bryan, Broker in bonds, stocks and real estate, Apollo Building, Fourth street. Mortgages bought and sold. Orders for the purchase and sale of stocks and bonds executed in New York and Philadelphia at the rates of commission current in those cities.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY EVENING, September 11, 1867.

Although our general markets were only moderately active to-day, yet there is palpable evidence of a growing improvement. The flour market was excited, owing to the advances in the Western markets, but prices continued the same as last quoted. But if the Western advance is sustained, prices must also go up here within the next day or two. There is no particular change to note in grain. In view of the advance in gold, holders of coffee, sugar and teas are not disposed to push off goods at present prices, as there is every evidence should the present gold premium be maintained, that prices must advance accordingly. Higher prices are asked for nearly all kinds of Bacon.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce, per river and rail, since our last were as follows: Flour 1,394 bbls; apples 45 bbls; corn 638 sacks; cheese 30 boxes; wheat 354 sacks; barley 265 sacks; rye 368 sacks; oats 637 sacks; butter 18 packages, and loose pieces of bulk meats 4,682 pieces.

We quote as follows which are the wholesale store prices unless otherwise noted:

APPLES—Sales of 60 bbls reported at $3 00@4 00 ₱ barrel.

PEACHES—We note sales of 348 boxes at $2 25@3 00 ₱ box.

PLUMS—We have reported sales of 37 bushels at $5 00 ₱ bushel.

PEARS—We quote at $6 00@7 00 ₱ bbl.

EGGS—Sales reported at 20c ₱ dozen.

BUTTER—Choice butter is in demand at 25c ₱ lb.

POTATOES—Choice Irish Potatoes are dull at 85@90c ₱ bushel, and sales reported of 40 bbls Jersey Sweet at $6 00 ₱ bbl.

BACON, ETC.—Market very firm and prices still advancing. We note sales of 9,000 lbs shoulders at 15½@15¾c; 5,000 lbs rib sides at 17c; 7,000 lbs S C hams at 23½c, and 10 tierces lard at 14c ₱ lb.

LARD OIL—Market firm. Sales noticed of 45 bbls No. 1 at $1 10, and 15 bbls No. 2 at 90c ₱ gallon.

CORN MEAL, FEED, ETC.—The following are the Washington street mill prices for fresh ground articles: Corn meal $1 20 ₱ bush; corn bran $1 50 ₱ hundred; rye flour $8 50 ₱ bbl; chop corn $2 30 ₱ hundred; chop corn and oats $2 40 ₱ hundred, and rye shorts $1 75 ₱ hundred.

HAY—The receipts are about adequate to meet the demand, and prices are unchanged. We quote prime timothy, from country wagons, at $15@19 ₱ ton.

OATS—Prices are unchanged and the market not very active. We quote sales from first hands at 50@53c, and from store at 54@55c ₱ bush.

CORN—There is very little doing in corn—a light stock in store and small receipts. The best quality of shelled is held firmly at $1 10@1 15 ₱ bush.

RYE—The market is more active but not quotable at over $1 20 ₱ bush delivered.

BARLEY—Sales were made at $1 15 ₱ bush.

WHEAT—The market continues very dull, as there appears to be no dealers in the market excepting millers, and they are not disposed to purchase any more than actually requisite to meet their wants. Receipts, however, are very light, and we quote red winter wheat ranging from $2 10@2 20 ₱ bush.

FLOUR—Owing to the reported advance in Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, and the advance in freights the market was considerably excited. Within the past four days there has been an advance in Chicago of $1 00 ₱ bbl. on choice brands of spring wheat. Private dispatches from Cincinnati report an advance of 50c ₱ bbl., to-day, on winter wheat flour. The millers at Dayton, Ohio, are asking an advance for flour, on account of the small receipts of wheat. Our dealers are getting $10 25 for spring and $11 25 winter, prices actually below their value compared with the western markets, and a rise is anticipated immediately in this market, should the western advance be sustained.

Groceries.

Gold at 145 has caused holders of goods to be firm in their views, and a disinclination to push off goods at the present prices is the general feeling. Strictly choice coffee is valued at 19c East, to which add the freight, 30c per hundred pounds, and the currency price would be 27.85 laid down here. Prices will advance if gold maintains its present position. New Orleans sugar is entirely out of the market, as far as we can ascertain, and its place is now being supplied with choice Porto Rico, which is held firmly at our quotation. The market is almost bare of New Orleans molasses—one hundred barrels would likely cover all that is held in the city. For the fall business it is considered quite safe to buy groceries at the present prices. We quote from sales made during the last few days:

COFFEE—Old Government Java, 38c; Laguayra, 27c; Rio, choice, 28c; prime, 27c; good, 25@26c; roasting, 23c.

SUGARS—Porto Rico, 14@14½c; Cuba, 13@14c; Sugar House, 12@12½c; Granulated, 17¼c; Powdered, 17¾c; Crushed, 17¾c; A Coffee, 16¾c; B do, 16½c; extra C, 16¼c; Demerara sugar, choice, 15½c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 95c@$1; Porto Rico, 75@85c; Cuba, 60@70c.

SYRUP—Lovering's, $1 10; other choice brands, $1 00; fair to good, 55@80c.

TEAS—Young Hyson, common to finest, 90c@$1 85; Imperial and Gunpowder, do, $1 25@2 00; Japan, 90c@$1 25; Oolong, 90c@$1 75.

RICE—Carolina, 14c; Rangoon, 10½@11c.

VINEGAR—Pure white wine vinegar, in original packages, 75c; common 25@30c.

FISH—No. 1 Shore Mackerel, $22; No. 1 Bay, do, $18; No. 2 Bay, do, $17; No. 3 large do, $12 50; Lake Herring, $3 75; White Fish, $6 75.

SODA—English Bicarb 9c.

SPICES—Pimento, 35c; Pepper, 35c; Cloves, 45c; Nutmegs, $1 60; Cassia, 75c.

SOAP—Proctor & Gamble's Olive, 11c; Babbett's, 12½c; Oakley's, 11½c.

LYE—Concentrated Lye, $6 50@8 50.

LARD OIL—Proctor & Gamble's extra No. 1 Lard Oil $1 10.

CANDLES—Proctor & Gamble's star candles, 25c.

INDIGO—Madras 90c@$1 50; Manilla 45c@$1 45.

BAR LEAD—12c.

DROP SHOT—13c.

Foreign Wines in Glass.

Moet & Chanden's green seal, ₱ case, $37 50; do Verzenay basket, $33; Heidsick & Co., do, $33; St. Julien Claret, do case, $5@12; St. Jacques Claret, do do, $11; Medoc Claret, do, $9; Burgundy Chablis, do do, $25@33; Chambertin, $37 50.

Family Markets.

Our markets are generally well supplied with all kinds of vegitation, and other articles entering into daily consumption. There has been a more liberal supply of poultry and some decline in prices. Choice butter has been scarce and high all season, but we notice a more liberal supply within the past few days, and a small decline. Eggs are scarce and higher. Tomatoes have not ripened so well, and are now higher than they were two weeks ago. Fresh meats are unchanged, but all kinds of salted are higher. Groceries are unchanged but the high price of gold has caused holders of goods to be more firm, and higher prices anticipated on many articles. We quote as follows:

MEATS—Choice beef roasts and steaks 20@25c; second quality 15@20c; choice mutton chops and roasts 18@20c ₱ lb, and other grades 10@15c; choice veal cutlets 25c ₱ lb; roast veal 15@20c, and stewing veal 12@15c ₱ lb; pork 15@18c ₱ lb; hams 23@24c ₱ lb; shoulders 15@16c; breakfast bacon 20@22c; clear sides 17@18c; sliced ham 30@35c, and dried beef 28c ₱ lb.

POULTRY—There is a better supply, and prices a shade lower. We quote dressed chickens at 75c@$1 00 ₱ pair; live chickens 50@80c, and ducks 75c@$1 00 ₱ pair.

FISH—The only kinds of fish in the market are trout and white fish, which are selling at 12½c ₱ lb; mackerel No 1 shore in kits are $300, and No 2, large, $2 50 ₱ kit; No 3 sales at 10@15c ₱ lb, as to quality.

FLOUR—Very little change to note for some time past. We quote extra family, in bbls, $12@12 50, and in bags, $3 10; fancy St Louis ₱ bbl, $14 25; corn meal ₱ bushel $1 25.

FRUITS—Choice apples 15 to 25c ₱ half peck; peaches 40 to 50c ₱ half peck; pears, ₱ half peck, 50 to 75c; quinces do 25 to 50c; grapes ₱ lb, common, 20 to 25c, and extra, as sold by Mr. McGinley, at his store, 50@60c ₱ lb; plums, ₱ quart, 20c.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY, September 12, 1867.

BUSINESS—The market since our last has exhibited a fair amount of activity. Crude oil that went begging for purchasers on Tuesday at 11c sold readily yesterday at 1c ₱ gal advance. Tuesday's sales reached 3,200 bbls. Wednesday's 9,050 bbls, of which 6,650 bbls was for immediate delivery, the balance for the future. Spot oil sold at 12½c, previous to December first at 12c, sellers' option, and for 1868, March and April, sellers' option, 13½c was paid. Dispatches from Oil City report a firm market with good demand and sales at the mouth at $4 25, whilst certain holders were demanding higher prices. The advantages of the market were evidently on the side of holders who will, without doubt, make the proper use of the same.

Transactions in Crude.

1,000 bbls bulk, Allegheny, on spot, 12½c.
4,000 bbls bulk, Allegheny, on spot, 12½c.
1,000 bbls bulk, Allegheny, on spot, 12½c.
2,000 bbls bulk, before Dec. 1, S O, 12c.
1,000 bbls bulk, March and April, 1868, S O, 13½c.
50 bbls Smith's Ferry, bbls returned, 12c.

Other lots were under negotiation, but had not been consummated when we left the market.

REFINED OIL—A material change was observable from the previous day. The private dispatches from Antwerp received did not quote the market correctly. Later ones by the cable gave an entirely different version of the market, which induced holders to put on their best smiles. The sales were 11,500 bbls of standard white, Philadelphia delivery. The 1,500 bbls reported at 32c for the last three months was closed late on Tuesday evening. Also the 500 bbls September delivery at 31c. Yesterday better figures were obtained. The market was in reality active. The operations in refined were as follows:

Transactions in Refined.

TITUSVILLE.

J. A. Coutant in his circular of the 6th inst., gives the following:

The market has been excited and feverish—prices steadily advancing from 5c to 25c each day. The oil in the producers' hands is about all sold, and from 8,000 to 10,000 barrels, from iron tanks. There is yet 30,000 to 40,000 barrels in iron tanks on the Oil Creek Road on the market at the present prices. I do not include what has been sold at Oil City. All the sales there have been from the tankage. It will take thirty days to move the oil bought. The following are the sales reported since my last:

August 23d—1,600 barrels at $2 95 on cars; 700 at $3 05; 800 at $3 10; 3,500 at $3 15; 60 at $3 20; 50 at $3 30 and at Oil City 4 cars at $3 20. August 23d—2,000 at $2 90; 1,300 at $3 00; 700 at $3 25, last for Elmira Refinery. August 24th—1,200 at $2 90; 750 at $2 95; 500 at $3 00; 200 at $3 15; all for local market; and 12 cars at Oil City at $3 25. August 26th—1,200 at $3 00; at Pithole 1,000 at $2 85; at Oil City 1,000 at $3 25. August 27th—500 at $2 90; 1,000 at $3 00; at Oil City 12 cars making about 1,100 barrels at $3 25; 520 at $3 20; 500 at $3 20. August 28th—2,200 at $3 00; 2,000 at $3 10. August 29th—300 at $2 90; 235 at $3; 2,200 at $3 10; 300 at $3 10; at Oil City 1,000 at $3 20; 2,000 at $3 25; 1,000 at $3 20. August 30th—1,250 at $3; 600 at $3 10; 1,200 at $3 15; 100 at $3 20; at Oil City 1,600 at $3 30. August 31st—100 at $3 10; 2,450 at $3 15; 1,300 at $3 20; 2,300 at $3 25; 180 at $3 30; sales at Oil City at $3 50. September 2d—100 at $3 10; 200 at $3 25; 370 at $3 30; 179 at $3 35; 2,000 at $3 40; 2,600 at $3 50; 4,000 at $3 60; Oil City market excited and nominal, asking $3 60 to $3 80 on cars. September 3d—400 at $3 45; 1,500 at $3 50; 1,000 at $3 60; 200 at $3 70; 500 at $3 75; Oil City nominal at $3 90 to $4. September 4th—1,050 at $3 50; 500 at $3 60; 1,700 at $3 75; 2,200 at $3 80; 3,300 at $3 85; 200 at $4; Oil City sales at $4 10. September 5th—300 at $3 80; 1,200 at $3 95; 10,700 at $4; 250 at $4 10; 4,000 at $4 50; 4,000 at $4 15; 1,000 at $4 25; Oil City nominal at $4 30 to $4 50. Market closes firm at $4 25, yet the feeling among the principal buyers is "that the top is reached."

The shipments for the two weeks, via Oil Creek Railroad, have amounted to 40,487 bbls., say:

To New York	33,000 bbls.
To Cleveland	1,680 "
To Other Points	5,738 "
Including refined	3,170 "

The estimated daily production of Oil in Western Pennsylvania is now about 8,500 barrels.

COAL TRADE.

Anthracite coal is coming into this market quite freely, and indications are that during the coming winter it will be quite an article of trade. An extensive company under the name of the Pennsylvania and Ohio Anthracite Coal Company are making large preparations to supply, through their agents here, Messrs. Dickson, Stewart & Co., any amount, at moderate prices, and are also preparing a wharf near Port Perry, on the Monongahela river, to load barges from cars off the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, for the lower river markets. At present it is delivered throughout the city at $9 50 ₱ ton, and in the yard at $9 ₱ ton. Cars are run through every day to Western markets.

Owing to the suspension of navigation on the Monongahela river, very little bituminous coal business is doing, excepting in Pool No. 1. From this pool there are fair receipts, and we are informed by Haberman & Co., that the flat prices are 7½c ₱ bush. Delivered to consumers the prices are 9@10c ₱ bush. The water in the upper pools has been drawn off, nearly all summer, and the usual number of barges, generally loaded at this season of the year, fails behind to a considerable extent. It will yet be some time before the dams are repaired, and should a rise occur sufficient for coal shipments, there would very little go out on it.

PHILADELPHIA.

The wholesale Coal trade still continues in a very depressed state, but indications appear decidedly favorable to an early improvement. The retail trade has much improved within the past few weeks, and is at present quite active, consumers feeling confident that a reaction is about to take place, and that prices of coal must soon advance. The production thus far being behind that of same time last year about 550,000 tons, and as many of the colliers now idle will not resume this season, the shipments from the mines must continue light, and in all probability cause a scarcity of coal at the close of the season.

This time last year the production had increased upon the same time the previous year upwards of 2,800,000 tons, and prices for best quality coal were then quoted at $6 00@6 50 ₱ ton, which is $2 00 above present rates for same coal.

Prices of Coal remain unchanged at $4 00@4 25 for white ash, and $4 25@4 50 for red ash, for eastern shipment, and Broad Top at $4 90@5 00, and Gas Coal at $8 00@8 25, as to quality, on board of vessel.

CINCINNATI.

There has been no essential change in prices, during the past week, says the Commercial of Tuesday. The demand has been but moderate. Youghiogheny and Ohio are so scarce, afloat, that quotations are omitted. We quote Youghiogheny, delivered ₱ bushel, 20c; Ohio river, delivered, ₱ bushel, 17@18c; Cannel, delivered, 23@24c ₱ bushel, and anthracite, delivered, $11 ₱ ton.

LOUISVILLE.

The stocks are reduced and we quote Pittsburgh in barges at 18c. Retail sales at 24c, or $6 ₱ 25 bushels, delivered, Pomeroy coal, afloat to boats, 14c.

WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY, September 11, 1867.

The wool market still remains quiet, with but little doing. The eastern markets being well supplied with wool, and manufacturers buying only from hand to mouth, makes it excessively dull in the country districts, with scarcely a buyer to be found. We quote coarse fleece and tub-washed wool at 35@40c; medium wool 40@43c, and fine wools 45@47c.

Oil City Oil Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

OIL CITY, September 11, 1867.

The petroleum market opened nominal with no inquiry; became more active during the day and sales were made at four dollars, market closing at about four dollars, with a somewhat active demand. The market on the Creek was quiet at $3 75@3 85 on cars.

Iron and Steel at Cincinnati.

There has been only a moderate degree of activity in hot blast foundry iron, and other kinds have been quiet. Malleable iron is selling better, at previous prices. Foreign steel is firmer under the advance in gold. We quote:

Pig—Hot blast foundry iron $48@50; mill iron $45@46; Tennessee cold blast $50@53; Missouri do $52@55, and car wheel iron $60@65; blooms $110@120 ₱ ton. Manufactured flat, round and square bar, bolted, 4½c; do charcoal 6c ₱ lb. Sheet iron, Nos. 10 to 17, bolled, 6c; charcoal 9c ₱ lb. Horses shoes $7 50@8 ₱ keg. Mule shoes $8 50@9 ₱ keg. Steel—American cast 19½c; American cast spring steel 11½c; imported tool steel 26@27½c ₱ lb.—Gazette.

RIVER TELEGRAMS.

Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, September 11.—The river is falling with two feet nine inches in the canal.

Memphis.

MEMPHIS, September 11.—The river is falling.

RIVER NEWS.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—Business along the wharf remains dull, with nothing doing in the way of trade. The low water still hangs on, closing up the outlets by the Ohio river pretty effectually. The new side wheel packets Selma, Capt. Rogers, for the New Orleans and Mobile trade, and Captain George D. Moore's new Parkersburg packet is now far advanced. They will no doubt be ready to take advantage of the first rise. They are both beauties and no mistake, and will reflect credit on all concerned in getting them up. Above the bridge the low water packets have the trade to themselves. The people along the Monongahela are suffering from the want of communication. In conversation with a gentleman from California yesterday, he informed us that they had not received a mail for the past eight days. The packet boats are sadly missed. We hope soon to see the locks repaired and trade resumed to all points.

VICKSBURG.—The Herald of the 4th says: The Myrtle, which was sold a short time since at United States Marshal's sale, has been purchased by Captain W. C. Hardwick, and will be taken to Memphis, decked and generally overhauled, and returned in the Vicksburg, Yazoo and Sunflower trade.

NEW ORLEANS.—The Crescent of the 6th says: The Board of Health has finally declared the yellow fever, or whatever else it may be called, to be an epidemic. This, of course, will redound to our city's welfare. The resolution could not be arrested, however. The people have regarded the Board of Health as the oracle, and as the mandate has been issued that an epidemic does really exist, the people and strangers at a distance are admonished of the danger they incur in coming to our city.

THE Cincinnati Commercial says: Captain George H. Alcoke and Captain Stant. J. Batchelor have commenced the steamboat agency and general commission business at No. 8 West Front street, the stand formerly occupied by Fowler & Sheerer. Both gentlemen are extensively known in marine and mercantile circles.

Captain Maratta has not yet decided whether he will return to New Orleans with the Emma No. 3. The yellow fever is raging fearfully there.

LOUISVILLE, September 9, Noon.—The river has fallen nine inches in the last twenty-four hours, with two feet eleven inches in the canal.

The new towboat Peytona, was launched yesterday.

The Tahlequah, from Cincinnati to Evansville, passed down yesterday morning.

The boat race between the Brilliant and Scribner, for a pair of horns and the championship, was won by the latter.

Still dry and clear. Business improving.

MAJ. THOMAS PEARSALL, State Commissioner of Alabama, to survey the Coosa river, has completed his labors. He is prepared to make his report to the next Legislature, giving in detail, the cost, feasibility and importance of opening the Coosa to navigation from Wetumpka to the Tennessee. Major Pearsall reports that the survey has demonstrated the fact that this great work is entirely feasible and practical. The importance of opening the Coosa to navigation between Wetumpka and Rome, whereby uninterrupted navigation will be secured, cannot be over-estimated.

BARGE BUILDING AT CINCINNATI.—Captain Leatherby is building two barges for the Mississippi Valley Transportation Company, each 190 feet long, 34 feet beam and 8 feet hold. They are calculated to carry 1,100 tons.

A barge is being built at the Marine Railway for the Booth Barge line. Length, 180 feet; beam, 34 feet; hold, 7 feet.

The Marine Railway and Dry Dock Company are also building two Government snag boats, which are in a forward state of completion. Another of the pattern is being built at Louisville.

A TRAVELING correspondent of the Boston Post makes the following statement. It will readily be seen that it was not intended to apply to the Western rivers: "I think there is less traveling crime in America than anywhere else. But the state-rooms on our steamboat routes are loosely let; marriage certificates are not asked for at the captain's office. The chambermaid is generally a broker in love concerns. On some of the boats they say that this mulatto syren hires a score or more of state-rooms to let out to nymphs de la fleuve—ladies who literally travel on their shape."

CINCINNATI.—The Gazette on the situation. The weather remains about the same as reported the past week—cool in the morning, warm from noon until sundown, and pleasant in the evening.

The usual Monday dullness prevailed on the wharf yesterday. The river declines steadily. Our report of yesterday, showing a very slight decline on the bars, may be taken as correct to-day. Boats from above and below all have trouble. Packets from above report having grounded in several places, and those from below all rubbed yesterday at Rising Sun, and one was stuck fast at latest advices. There are scant three feet of water on Rising Sun and Medoc.

MEMPHIS.—The Avalanche of the 7th says: The river is falling steadily, with the channel cutting out slowly. The packets report seven and a half feet on the bars between here and Cairo. White river is at a low ebb, with four and a half feet on the bars. Little Rock dispatches report thirty inches in the Arkansas.

The Henry Ames, from St. Louis to New Orleans, passed down yesterday. She was five days in working her way through from Cairo to this point.

The Princess, from St. Louis to Little Rock, passed down in the evening.

The St. Patrick dropped down to the landing, and is ready to receive freight. She starts on Tuesday.

FALL OF RAIN LAST SPRING.—Last spring was unusually wet, and according to Professor W. Morris, the rain fall for the several months ending July was thirty-six and a half inches, or 5.21 inches per month; a larger average than on any one of the thirty years preceding. The mean annual fall of rain in the latter period was 44.62 inches, and for the past thirteen years, 48.11 inches. If, therefore, it should rain the coming four months of the current year in the same proportion as during the first seven mentioned, the precipitation would be 62.57 inches, or a larger amount than has ever been known to fall in a year. The following figures are arranged to show the rain-fall in inches by months, and to present a comparison with last year:

	1866.	1867.
January	3.70	1.10
February	6.00	6.81
March	2.28	5.47
April	4.09	2.47
May	4.46	5.70
June	4.84	10.33
July	1.67	6.00
August	4.81	3.24
Total	31.85	39.74

We may, therefore, present averages as follows:

Rain fall, 1866	45.22 inches.
Rain fall, 1867	62.57 "
Mean for 13 years, from 1854 to 1867	48.11 "
Mean for 30 years, from 1836 to 1865	44.62 "

The inference is natural, if there was more than an average fall of rain in 1866, and considerably more rain in the first nine months in 1867 than is usual in an entire year, that there is very slight grounds to suppose that we will have rain the remainder of this year, to remove navigation to any material extent.

AN OLD STEAMBOAT MAN.—We find the following in the St. Louis papers: Among the passengers on the Cairo Branch, which arrived from New Orleans a few days ago, was Mr. Jas. H. McClure, a pioneer of the West. He left his home, in the vicinity of the Crescent City, to escape the danger of an attack of yellow fever. On the passage up Capt. Isaac Jones learned that he ascended the Mississippi in a steamboat as early as 1824, coming from New Orleans to Louisville, on the Caledonia, commanded by Capt. Noble, of Cincinnati. He says there was considerable discussion among the old barge and flatboatmen on board, with regard to the future progress of steamboat building and improvements in steam power as applied to Western water-craft. One day he made bold to affirm as his belief, that the day would come when a steamboat would make the trip from New Orleans to Louisville in eight days. This statement excited laughter and ridicule, and Captain Noble shook his head significantly, saying, "That could never be," but he believed that boats would be built that would perform the trip in ten days. The Caledonia made it in something over twelve days, being the fastest Mississippi steamer then afloat. If those who thought so then could stand upon the banks of the river now, and see the superb and stately palaces of motion shoot past, one after the other, like gaily chasing meteors, what would be their astonishment. To a person who has witnessed all the changes which have taken place within the past eighty years, its former appearance seems like a dream or romance. Mr. McClure says he finds it difficult to realize the features of that wilderness which was the abode of his boyhood days. Everywhere surrounded by the busy hum of men, and the splendor, arts, refinements and comforts of civilized life, his former State and that of his country have faded from his memory. Mr. McClure is over eighty years old, and remembers well when all the women and children in Newport, Kentucky, were collected together in one log cabin to protect the from an attack by the Indians. This was in the year 1794. He also recollects seeing the building of the first brick house in Cincinnati, which was situated on the northwest corner of Fifth and Main streets, and occupied for many years as a tavern.

PROPOSALS.

OHIO RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the Superintending Engineer, Pittsburgh, southwest corner of Third and Market streets, until SATURDAY NOON, September 21st, 1867,

For Removing Obstructions

From the Ohio River, consisting of Snags, Trees, Sunken Logs, Boats, Barges and Wrecks, &c.

Bidders will specify the price per day for each day's work, for which they will agree to furnish everything necessary and do the work, under the superintendence of a person to be appointed by the said Engineer. Said price to cover the furnishing of a light draught steamer, two strongly decked flats, one crane and crane boat and the necessary screws, chains, ropes, levers, saws, axes, fixtures, etc., suitable for such work, and including the pay and expenses of Captain, Pilot, Engineer and Crew and six men for running the steamer and doing the work. All expenses to be paid and all risks borne by the party proposing, it being understood that the Government will be responsible for the payment of nothing more than the sum per day that may be agreed upon.

Proposals will be received for two steamers, &c.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids if it may be deemed to the interest of the Government so to do.

The work is of the same character as that now carried on with the steamer "Greenback."

Blank forms of proposals will be furnished on application to the office; the proposals to be accompanied with the guaranty of two responsible sureties.

For further information apply at the office in Pittsburgh, by letter or otherwise.

By order of the Chief of Engineers of the Army of the United States.
